

MAY DAY SCARE PUTS NATION ON GUARD

FIX BONUS BILL;
THEN SQUABBLE
CAUSES HITCHG.O.P. Caucus Balks
at Sales Tax.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., April 30.—[Special.]—The $1,800,000,000 soldiers' bonus bill, reported by a vote of 11 to 10 today from the ways and means committee, encountered such opposition in the Republican house caucus tonight because of its sales tax feature that it is in danger of defeat in the house unless radical changes are made.

The Republican caucus adjourned, probably to meet next week, but it was agreed the bill will not be brought up in the house for action Monday, as first agreed when it came from committee.

Before the caucus Representative Royal Johnson of South Dakota and Representative Frenn of Wisconsin, Republican opponents of the sales tax feature, circulated a round robin among Republican members and got sixty-eight signatures to a pledge of irreconcilable opposition to a sales tax. This was read at the caucus held behind closed doors.

Fear Defeat of Party.
Vigorous denunciation of the sales tax was delivered by several members, some of whom declared that the American people would defeat any political party which would stand for the sales tax feature.

As reported from the ways and means committee, eleven Republicans for it, eight Democrats and two Republicans against it, the bill provided the optional plans for "adjusted compensation." Two Republicans and two Democrats were absent. The plans are:

Adjusted service pay at $1.25 for each day of service in excess of sixty days between April 5, 1917, and Jan. 1, 1920.

Extension of vocational training at $1.75 for each day of attendance on a course of instruction declared suitable by the federal board for vocational education.

Extension of Vocational Training.
Purchase or improvements of city or suburban homes with compensation at the rate of $1.75 for each day of service, insurance of paid up insurance at the rate of $1.75 for each day of service.

Each insurance will be payable twenty years after issued or in case of death. Loans could be obtained at any time after two years.

Establishment of a "national veterans' settlement board," composed of the secretary of the interior and four members to be appointed by the president, at least three of whom shall be former service men, which would be authorized to make loans to service men not exceeding $1,000 for the reclamation and development of farm lands.

Raising of Revenue.
Revenues would be raised by four plans, as follows:

Increased surtaxes of 1 per cent on net incomes between $5,000 and $10,000; 2 per cent on incomes between $10,000 and $25,000; and 3 per cent on incomes above $25,000.

One per cent on retail sales to be paid by those making the sale and to be paid in the case of all sales, contracts, and leases whenever made.

Tax on stock and bond sales, or transfers at one-fifth of 1 per cent of the market value. Tax on produce exchange transactions at the same rate. A tax of 25 cents for each $50 of the total amount of sales, or contract to sell lands, tenements, etc.

Taxes on various brands of cigars, tobacco, and manufactured products ranging from 15 per cent to 66 per cent, depending on the grade, and a tax of $1 per thousand on cigars.

Taxes imposed under the bill would become effective Dec. 1, 1920.

Action in Committee.
Absentees from today's committee meeting were Representatives Copley of Illinois and Treadway of Massachusetts, Republicans, and Kitchen of North Carolina and Carew of New York, Democrats.

The eleven Republicans voting for the bill were Fordney of Michigan, Green of Iowa, Longworth of Ohio, Watson of Pennsylvania, Hawley of Oregon, Mott of New York, Tilson of Connecticut, Bacharach of New Jersey, Bradley of Washington, Timberlake of Colorado, and Bowers of West Virginia.

The eight Democrats joining with Representatives Frenn and Young, Republicans, in opposing the bill were Representatives Rainey of Illinois, Hull of Cop Stops Mrs. Archie Roosevelt's Auto as "Suspicious"—They Repents.

MRS. ARCHIE ROOSEVELT.

(Copyright: Underwood & Underwood.)

Mrs. Archie Roosevelt of Glenview, daughter-in-law of Theodore Roosevelt, was riding in her auto at Michigan avenue and Randolph street yesterday noon when Detective Sergeant Harry Donnelly, seeing a number of boxes and suitcases inside and no license plate on the machine, decided to investigate.

"Stop your car," he yelled to the chauffeur.

"Who are you?" asked a feminine voice. "I'm Mrs. Archie Roosevelt and I'm on my way to a railroad station and to Panama."

"What's in these boxes?" asked Donnelly. "And where's your license plate?"

"O, those are just my clothes," replied Mrs. Roosevelt.

Donnelly's suspicions died a sudden death.

"I'm sorry I stopped her," he said, "but her car sure looked suspicious."

MENNONITES TO

QUIT CANADA AS

U. S. COLONISTS?

Winnipeg, Man., April 30.—Mennonite colonies of Manitoba and Saskatchewan plan to leave Canada for the United States to establish one great colony in the Mississippi valley, according to today's Winnipeg Tribune.

"Tiring of the fight to retain special privileges in their schools and fearing public opinion will wrest from them their exemption from military service in time of war, orthodox Mennonite church colonies in Manitoba and Saskatchewan plan to leave this summer and establish a great colony in the Mississippi valley," the Tribune says.

More than 8,000 persons would be affected, thirteen or fourteen prairie towns practically depopulated, temporarily at least, and improved land holdings valued at more than $10,000,000 would have to be sold for what they would bring, it is said.

CARRANZA TO FLEE, CAPITAL
WARNS BORDERChihuahua City Falls
to Rebels, Report.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—[Special.]—Information regarded as of the most reliable character has been received in Washington to the effect that President Carranza is preparing to flee from Mexico.

The government was so much impressed with this intelligence that it is understood to have sent instructions to federal agents along the border to watch closely for the appearance of Carranza.

The information reaching here indicated that Carranza might leave Mexico by way either of Vera Cruz or the American border. That it has a sound basis is not doubted.

What would be the course of the United States government should Carranza seek to cross into this country or arrive on a ship at an American port is not known. The supposition is that he would be given asylum.

CHIHUAHUA FALLS, REPORT

AGUA PRIETA, April 30.—Chihuahua City is definitely in the hands of the revolutionists, it was announced by Gen. P. Elias Calles tonight. Chihuahua City, capital of Chihuahua, has a population of 40,000.

Gov. de la Huerta sent the following message to Gen. Calles:

"I will wire you now the first aspect of the conference I had with Chihuahua. Chihuahua said:

"We salute you cordially with due respect and are informing you that on April 26 at 6 p. m. we declared for the movement started in Sonora under your leadership. Notwithstanding we did not have any forces under our command, we led a movement with the garrison of this place that agreed to join us."

"We fought a battle with the 62d regiment, which refused to join us. On the 27th we captured the regiment."

Many Towns Join Revolt.
"To date we control the following cities: Parral, Jimenez, Camargo, and, in general, all the northwestern part of the state. Only in Casas Grande and Juarez are left some forces under Gen. Urbalejo and Gen. Escobar which have not defined their attitude."

"Gen. Quiroga (Carranza Chihuahua commander) fled in a ridiculous manner from Camargo with six men. All his forces joined us."

"We also are garrisoning towns with regional forces under Gen. Enriquez, so we will be able to march on Torreón."

Insurgent Armies Grow.
"Total forces belonging to our liberal army are from 6,000 to 7,000 men, infantry, cavalry and defense societies. We have 100 machine guns and four thousand cannon of different caliber."

"The generals, chief officers and privateers congratulate you on this great victory in the state of Chihuahua."

"Very respectfully,"

"GEN. EUGENIO MARTINEZ,"

"GEN. JOAQUIN AMARO,"

"GEN. JOSE AMARILLOS,"

"GEN. ARIBUNDO GOMEZ."

Revolution has broken out in every state surrounding Mexico City, with the exception of Queretaro, according to military headquarters.

REBELS TO COLLECT DUTY

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Americans doing business in Sonora, and other parts of Mexico controlled by the revolutionists have been authorized to pay taxes and customs duties to the de facto authorities.

This authorization, it was explained today at the state department, is in accordance with a recognized principle of international law and does not amount to recognition of a de facto government. The principle was observed when the Carranza revolution started and obtained control of ports.

Winnetka Turns Out as

One Man to Dry Orator

"Uncle Sam's Relation to the New World Conditions," was the theme upon which Joseph F. Camp, of the American Anti-Saloon league, was to lecture at the High school auditorium, Winnetka, Mr. Camp assumed his position on the rostrum at 8:15.

The audience was late, not arriving until 8:30. He explained that he was busy firing the furnace. The audience comprised Elmer Johnson the school janitor. Nobody else came.

Mr. Camp postponed the lecture indefinitely, but Mr. Johnson expounded at length his well known views concerning 3 per cent beer and light wines.

MAN ON TRIAL
FOR ONE KILLING
BOASTS OF TWOStartles Own Lawyer
and Courtroom.

Frank Zagar, on trial for murder, amazed Judge Sabath's courtroom yesterday by confessing to the witness stand, not only one murder, but two.

He had insisted on taking the stand, against the advice of his attorney Eugene Moran, after the latter had almost succeeded in establishing an alibi.

And at the first question asked by Moran, Zagar produced his sensation.

"Where were you on the night when Poldaris Serdakis was killed and Spirid Kalzouris was wounded?" was the question.

Boasts of Crime.
"I was right there," Zagar answered. "And I bumped Serdakis off and shot his friend. And what's more, I croaked another fellow that same night!"

"You don't mean it," was all Moran could say.

Judge Sabath ordered a recess, and sent for Dr. W. O. Krohn, alienist. Zagar insisted he was telling the truth, and added that he wanted to make a full confession to Assistant State Attorney John Lowery, who is prosecuting the case.

Dr. Krohn arrived. The trial proceeded. Zagar went on with his story. He didn't seem nervous. It was all matter of fact. He told of how he had killed Paul Palpo.

Killed Because He's Slow.
"He was a mutt—wouldn't stick up his hands quick enough. I got $35 from him."

He said Ollie Buckner and Joe Deliski were with him when he held up Serdakis and Kalzouris. This was a little more than two hours after the killing of Palpo.

"Serdakis was slow too about throwing 'em up," he said. "And after I got his $10, he lowered his arms. So I just bumped him off."

"Why did you shoot the other man?" he was asked.

"O, I just thought I might as well kill him, I guess."

Expert Says He's Sane.
Attorney Moran made an attempt to establish that his client is insane. But Dr. Clarence A. Neymann, superintendent of the psychopathic hospital, who examined Zagar some time ago, stated his opinion that Zagar is sane.

"It seems to me that he had been coached," said Dr. Neymann. "But we found no indication that he was not responsible for his acts."

Dr. Krohn also believes that Zagar is sane. He will testify for the state today, and it is expected the case will go to the jury this evening.

When Zagar was being led back to his cell he was asked if he thought himself sane.

"Get me right," he said. "I'm all O. K. in the upstairs. The only one who's crazy is the guy that's trying to get me off on an insanity plea. See?"

Helps Enforce Dry Law;

Lands in Cell as Result

After he had bought eleven quarts of liquid from Edward Morris, colored, of 3260 Indiana avenue in the belief it was whiskey and paid him $26, Mrs. Emma Foley, colored, of 58 East Forty-second street, says she found ten and a half of the quarts were tea without a label. Morris was arrested.

CHUM OF YOUTH

TURNS WOMAN'S

PAST INTO FUTURE

Chance Given Mother

of 5 to Rebuild Life.

BY LEOLA ALLARD.

Mavis Crandall was an orphan schoolgirl of 15, whose head was full of dreams, when she first met Dick Ballou. She lived in a little town near Knoxville, Tenn., and she liked to go down to the station to see the trains come in.

Dick drove one of the biggest locomotives that stopped at the station. He was big. He was 38. He was picturesque. It flattered her that such a big man noticed her—a little girl with a pigtail hanging down her back.

There wasn't anybody to warn Mavis, and anyway, she might not have heeded a warning. Ballou was more than twice her age, and she believed whatever he did or said was right. And there wasn't any one to tell her either, that there was a Mrs. Dick Ballou and two children in another southern city.

They Come to Chicago.
Mavis came to Chicago with the handsome engineer, and he furnished a house for her. The years brought knowledge. Mavis wanted to leave the man who would not marry her. But the way out was barred. There were the babies—five of them. She couldn't leave them and she couldn't take care of them alone.

One day not long ago Mavis found an old friend in a downtown store—Jack Carlin. Jack had sat behind her in the old white schoolhouse. Mavis wept when she saw him. She told him all about Dick and the five children, the oldest now 16, Jack, who had just got out of a hospital for convalescent soldiers, held her hands and asked her to be his wife.

"Don't marry me out of pity," she said. But the soldier denied there was any pity in him. He said he had always cared for her. He had been trying to find her ever since she disappeared from Tennessee.

Dick Provides Trouseau.
Mavis thought it over for several weeks. Then she put it up to Dick. Dick said he guessed it would be all right. He gave her money toward her wedding clothes, and wished her happiness.

Mrs. Mavis Carlin thought now that her troubles were over. But they weren't. Dick Ballou's mother came to Chicago. She wanted her son's children. Dick filed a petition to adopt all five of them, intending to send them to his mother. They would live in the south.

Mavis rushed in terror to Judge Victor P. Arnold of the juvenile court. "Have I no say?" she asked. "Can't I, who have borne these children and cared for them have a word to say about them? I want to be clean and decent. But if it means that I lose my children, I do not want it."

Judge Defends Mother.
"You have all the say," the judge assured her. "Nobody can take them from you except their father—and he must prove you an unfit mother."

When the case came up in court, counsel for the father contended that the children were illegitimate, which made the judge angry. He banged his fist on the bench and shouted:

"What of it? Does that make the mother unfit? What about the man? He was more than twice her age. He had a wife and children. And he took a 15 year old girl from her home's challenger, Shamrock IV, will be begun off Newport June 3 and continue until a series of twelve or fourteen races are sailed, the race committee of the New York Yacht club announced last night. The trials will be preceded by a series of six practice races in Long Island sound off New Haven, beginning May 21, it was stated.

MANY BALK AT

MOVING; AMONG

THEM LORIMER

Standpat Spirit May

Keep Courts Busy.

Among the several thousand households in Chicago which, it is estimated, have decided to resist May day orders to move is that of former Senator William Lorimer. The estimate of the total number that will refuse to move is made by an official of the Chicago Tenants' Protective league. The figures may be high. Litigation rather than force is expected to settle most of them. There are many such cases in various parts of town.

Mr. Lorimer lives with his son, William Lorimer Jr., at 851 Margate terrace. Margate terrace is a pleasant little thoroughfare. It is secluded, out of the way of traffic noises, and a stone's throw from the lake.

Owner Wants the Flat.
Henry W. Thornton owns the building. He lives in a house at 833 Leland avenue. He wants to move his family into the flat now occupied by the Lorimers. The Lorimers do not wish to move.

"I gave Mr. Lorimer notice three months ago," said Mr. Thornton last night, "that my wife and I wanted to occupy the apartment. He says I didn't. Perhaps the notice didn't reach him, but it was mailed."

At the Lorimer home there was no sign of preparations for moving, and Miss Lorimer said the family was not going to move.

"There's been a little misunderstanding," she said, "but everything is all right."

Mr. Lorimer and Mr. Thornton held a conference yesterday. They will confer again today and Mr. Thornton says if the Lorimers do not move he's afraid he'll have to go to court.

"With Their Backs to Wall."
Other incidents of refusals to move were numerous. Maj. H. S. Standish, head of the tenants' league, gave the figures. He thinks fully 10,000 families will defy landlords to put them out.

"The tenants who have been asked to pay exorbitant rents and who are unable to pay them or to secure other quarters are fighting with their backs to the wall," said Maj. Standish. "I am sure there will be at least 10,000 cases where the landlords will be defeated."

"Of course there are a number of cases in which we hope to get satisfactory settlements, but it will be several days before we will know the exact status of them. Some of the fights will be bitter. These tenants will refuse to see their wives and children thrown out into the streets."

Plan to Clog Courts.
The plan is for them to take jury trials. There will be enough cases to tie up the Municipal courts for some time. When they do come to trial show the jury of American men who will allow a profiteering landlord to deprive a family of a roof.

The idea that a tenant doesn't have to move is all wrong," said one tenant who is moving today. "I am not going to be deluded into thinking that a man can have possession of his property after the lease expires, and so I am moving."

However at least twenty-five families in Rogers Park will refuse to move today, according to J. E. Simpson, 2015 Birchwood avenue, secretary of the Rogers Park Tenants' Protective league. The families are tenants of William Mason, 2033 Birchwood avenue, owner of a group of buildings on Birchwood avenue, North Seely and North Hoyne avenues.

Mason is charged by the tenants with boosting the rents to enable him to sell the buildings at a large profit.

Win First Battle.
The Rogers Park organization won its first fight in the courts yesterday when a jury in Judge Swanson's court told Edward Hoffman, 2445 Alameda street, that he could remain in his apartment for thirty days more. Hoffman, who is married and has three children, has been paying $27 a month for a stove heated apartment without a lease. J. J. Plickhart, the owner, demanded $55. A thirty day notice was served upon Hoffman, who remained in the apartment after the thirty days expired. The jury decided that owing to this fact the defendant could remain in the place until the expiration of a second thirty day notice.

"More persons are moving this year than ever before," said Albert H. Hollander, president of the Furniture, Piano Movers, and Express association.

City Quiet on

May Day Eve;

Police Alert

The Chicago authorities saw the approach of May day without undue apprehension, though federal officials had made extensive preparations to meet any emergency.

First Deputy Alcock of the police department said late last night he expected no serious trouble whatever.

Three meetings are to be held today—under surveillance—and certain organizations comprising perhaps 15,000 workers are to remain idle for the day.

The plan to refrain from work is not called a strike but a recognition of May day as "a holiday." Radicals call the day International Labor day. While no violence is apprehended, possible troublesome centers will be under police scrutiny the entire day, it was announced last night. No permits for parades have been asked.

Union Takes Holiday.
The Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America will probably refrain from work in a mass today. This, however, will not be in the nature of a strike. May 1 is and has been written into their contracts with their employers for some years as a holiday.

The military intelligence department, through its chief, Col. Gordon Johnston, yesterday denied that they had ever furnished Chief of Police Garrity or State's Attorney Mackay Hoyne with any warning or information regarding a possible radical uprising today.

No Fear for Officials.
Regarding the statement on Thursday of Attorney General Palmer that a number of officials had been marked for death at the hands of bombers today, Edward J. Brennan, chief of the local bureau of investigation, department of justice, announced that "no public officials in Chicago need have any fear for their lives."

John Juck, a Russian, was under arrest yesterday following the distribution of a number of "May day" proclamations issued by the National Socialist party. Federal authorities believe cause will be found for deportation proceedings against him.

Celebrations of Day.
The I. W. W. will celebrate May day by a meeting at Workers' hall, 113 South Throop street; the Socialists by an afternoon and evening at Car Men's hall, Van Buren street and Ashland avenue, and the Russians at the city by a talkfest at Humboldt park. No disorders are anticipated.

At East Chicago, Gary, and Hammond, precautions have been taken by local police to block any demonstrations which might lead to possible violence.

Prominent Men Will

incite or excite trouble in any such assembly.

Many Men are "Marked."

It was disclosed by Mr. Garvan that several members of congress, three federal judges and an attorney recently active in investigating radical disturbances had been "marked for assassination." With the early discovery of the plots, however, Mr. Garvan believed the officials against whose lives the plots were directed now are amply protected.

The amount of radical literature circulated within the last week was described by Mr. Garvan as "amazing." Mr. Garvan declared Tom Millhouse, arrested on a deportation warrant, which was later canceled by Assistant Secretary of Labor Post, has been found in Chicago, distributing the May day proclamation of the Communist party.

Meanwhile, department officials said, they were expecting a decision tomorrow by Secretary of Labor Wilson as to whether membership in the Communist Labor party was sufficient ground in itself for deportation of aliens. Mr. Garvan declared the evidence against the Communist Labor party was "infinitely more damaging" than against the Communist Labor party of America, which has been held to be unlawful.

Machine Guns in Boston.
Boston, Mass., April 30.—For use in a May day emergency the police have posted machine guns at various parts of the city, manned by overseas veterans.

An appeal to workers to strike on May 1 is contained in poster appearing headed, "Hail to the Soviets."

All Set in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30.—Posters calling upon all workers to stay away from their places of employment tomorrow were found in prominent parts of Indianapolis today. Department of justice officials declared they are prepared for any situation that may arise.

Reds Busy in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 30.—Police officials announced many copies of a "May day proclamation" by the central executive committee of the Communist Party of America had been distributed on the north side today. The police were instructed to arrest any one found distributing the literature. The proclamation was headed with the words "Hail to the Soviets."

WOOD PRAISES THE LOYALTY OF LABORING MEN

Terre Haute, Ind., April 30.—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, at the end of the third day of his speaking tour in Indiana at Terre Haute tonight, made an appeal for a higher class of Americanism. Coal miners made up a great part of the audience.

"In my thirty-five years of experience in dealing directly with labor," he said, "I have always found 95 per cent of them on the square. I have had a great deal to do with strikers, but I never had to hurt a single man. I am not telling these things to please you, but because I have found that there has been a great deal of wrong done about me to use plain English."

"I have found that as soon as I got hold of the men and had a straight talk with them that they had a good grievance in nearly all strikes, and my advice to them always has been to play the game square, obey the law, and state their grievances to the public. At Gary, Ind., things straightened out in two hours and we had no trouble."

U. S. WARSHIP IS RACING TO CURB ALASKA ALIENS

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Activity of alien agitators near Hydrant, Alaska, resulted in the dispatch today of the coast guard cutter Algonquin from Port Townsend, Wash., to that place.

The coast guard service said the vessel would aid local officials in maintaining order. The Algonquin carries a crew of seventy-one and is equipped with four three-inch rifles and two machine guns.

Gov. Coolidge Warns Reds That They Must Behave

Boston, Mass., April 30.—[Special.]—Gov. Coolidge, whose name was reported to be included in the list of prominent persons marked by the reds for assassination on May day, declared tonight that law and order would continue and that those who attempted to destroy the liberty of others were sure to be overwhelmed. In a statement Gov. Coolidge said:

"I have read the threats in the morning papers. Threats are of no consequence. The life of one man, even if he held an important official position, is not of supreme consequence."

"The orderly execution of the law will go on so long as I have any authority over it, and it has been amply demonstrated that Massachusetts will provide for its continuance whatever contingency may arise."

TROOPS SURGING INTO PARIS FOR MAY DAY GUARD

Machine Guns, Field Guns, Ready for Action.

BY HENRY WALES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[By Special Cable.]

PARIS, May 1, 1 a. m.—At midnight troops began marching into Paris from the Bois de Boulogne, and the Bois Vincennes prepared for any trouble as a result of the May day strike called by the General Federation of Labor.

Two divisions of colonials, including the Senegalese and Moroccan sharpshooters who entered Frankfurt and were replaced by white troops, are among the forces massed on the outskirts of Paris awaiting call.

Two regiments of dragoons, one regiment of hussars, and two regiments of Hussars are billeted round about Longchamp race track ready to ride charging into Paris.

Two hundred new tanks are massed at Ballancourt, St. Cloud, and Vincennes ready to rumble into Paris.

Thirty Air Squadrons Ready.

Thirty aviation squadrons, including observation and bombing planes, as well as single seater fighting planes with machine guns, have been sent to aviation fields near Paris, such as Belleville and St. Cyr, where rear gas bombs have been distributed ready to break up mob terrorism.

Machine guns and field guns with motor tractors are ready at Versailles to be sent to the capital if needed.

The Millerand government will not line the principal streets with troops like the Clemenceau government did last year, but will station squads in the principal squares, holding strong positions in the Montmartre, Belleville, and other apacher sections. A half dozen soldiers will be placed at every subway station. Car barns, telephone and telegraph exchanges, the postoffice, central markets and banks will be well guarded. Government buildings guarded at the ministries of war, foreign affairs, interior and marine have been doubled.

Food for the Soldiers.

Forty batteries of field kitchens will enter Paris at daylight carrying hot rations to the troops on duty.

Laborites realize the thorough preparations of the government to stamp out trouble immediately with bombs, machine guns and cavalry, and the Seine federation has issued a warning to workmen to go peacefully and not make any manifestations that will provoke bloodshed.

Italy Sees No Trouble.

ROME, April 30.—Premier Nitti announced at a meeting of the cabinet today that he was able to predict May day would pass peacefully in Italy, although he believed suspension of work in all classes would be general.

General Holiday in Berlin.

BERLIN, April 30.—May day will be extensively celebrated by the workers of Berlin. The street cars, electric and suburban train service will be suspended. Newspapers will appear only early in the morning, and no further editions will be printed until Monday. All the schools will be closed.

Clashes in Saragossa.

SARAGOSSA, April 29.—The general committee which is directing the strike here has decided that work shall not be resumed so long as the labor leaders recently arrested are kept in jail. The judicial authorities, nevertheless, have registered approval of the arrests.

Disturbances developed early in the day against several workers who remained at their tasks and shopkeepers who opened their places of business. The police reestablished order during the afternoon, but only after crowds of strikers had stormed the shops which were open.

Strike in Argentina.

BUENOS AIRES, April 29.—All trades affiliated with the regional workers' federation will take part in a twenty-four hour strike which will be one of the features of the May 1 labor demonstration here. Other labor organizations plan to cease work for half a day.

Miners to Go On Strike.

Sydney, N. S., April 30.—More than 12,000 coal miners will go on a May day strike as a sympathetic demonstration for the Winnipeg strike leaders now in Stony Mountain prison.

POLES DRIVE REDS BACK

1—The Polish advance into Russia continues. Mohilev and Chernobyl have fallen, and the Poles are only twelve miles from the Dnieper river, about sixty miles north of Kiev.

2—The Poles have taken Malin and Rozatyn, each less than thirty miles west of Kiev. American aviators drop propaganda in the vicinity of Kiev. The Reds admit the loss of Jitomir. Reinforcements from the Caucasus are reported on their way to Kiev.

3—The bolsheviks are fighting stubbornly along the Bug river.

BERLIN REVEALS RED CRUELITIES IN RUHR REVOLT

BY PARKE BROWN.

[Copyright: 1920: By the Tribune Company.]

BERLIN, April 30.—The attention of critics of the German government's policy on the Ruhr, who have maintained none of the proceedings of Red terrorism reported were practiced by the Communists, was called today to the record of a special court martial at Weasel which condemned Christian Koepf, ironworker, to death.

The case was referred to President Ebert, who declined to commute the sentence, basing his decision largely on the defendant's own testimony. This in part follows:

"I volunteered in the Red army on March 22 and went to the front at Friedrichshafen. The morning of the 23d I found a reichwehr lieutenant cornered in a cellar. He had a rifle, but surrendered immediately. We dragged him out where four Red soldiers beat him with rifle butts. Then one of the leaders ordered him shot, and twenty men swarmed around, shooting at the lieutenant. I shot and at the first shot the lieutenant collapsed. It was decided to let him lie so he would suffer the longest possible. He was shot in the abdomen. In the afternoon the Dusseldorf leader came and cut his throat with a knife. Then I robbed the lieutenant, taking his pocketbook, watch, and razor."

A war department report to the highways committee of congress declares that problems of highway construction, particularly in middle west states, are matters of national rather than state concern.

SENATOR JOHNSON of California is preparing to invade the south for presidential delegates, having particular designs on North Carolina.

THE senate foreign relations committee favorably reported the redefined Knox peace resolution which repeals the declaration of war against Germany and that against Austria also.

Rumors of unrest among Negroes in the black belt and fear of possible trouble caused the police to schedule a large number of extra men last night in the districts where trouble might arise. These men will report for work at 5 o'clock this morning, and will be stationed in the Hyde Park, Cottage Grove, and Wabash avenue districts, where a large percentage of the Negroes reside.

Additional forces will also be stationed in the loop where a scheduled strike of waiters may lead to some trouble. It was announced.

RED CROSS MEN IN SIBERIA SHOT, HARBIN REPORT

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] [By Special Cable.]

HARBIN, April 29.—There are in direct reports that a Red Cross train which left the Siberian interior on March 31 has been captured and the officers shot. The train has not been heard from since it left Harbin. The train consisted of sixteen cars of hospital supplies, medicines, and clothing in charge of Col. Douglas Young of Kingston, Ont., accompanied by Capt. Peacock of the British mission, Dr. Ordissell of Dublin, and Sergt. Brown, Canadian.

Utterly ridiculous," Mr. Morris said. "I am returning to Chicago with Mr. Morris on regular leave, coming back to my Stockholm post after a few months."

The source of the report is unknown.

AMERICAN LOAN MISSION STRIKES SNAG AT PEKING

Chinese Refuse to Turn In Railway.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[By Special Cable.]

PEKING, April 30.—The Japanese press reports that the American banking mission of Thomas W. Lamont and his party to China now is in grave danger of failure.

The Tokyo newspapers have been carrying dispatches from China regarding the conferences of Mr. Lamont and his associates with the Chinese minister of finance. The minister refuses to accept the American terms.

The main difference concerns the Hunan-Canton railway, which Mr. Lamont contends should come in under the securities for the loan proposed by the consortium. The Chinese, however, insist on the unhampered return of the railroad to China, since it was a former German interest.

At that point the negotiations are deadlocked.

Welcome to Vanderbilt.

Meanwhile at Tokyo Japan's leading citizens are turning out in an enthusiastic welcome to Frank Vanderbilt, the New York banker, and his party, who also are looking over conditions in this part of the world.

At the Peers' club today Shibusawa said that the symbolic topknot and the two swords no longer are being worn by the Japanese.

"A good many of our countrymen," replied Mr. Vanderbilt, "wear a topknot in the shape of national pride and two swords—one misunderstanding and the other prejudice. Not all are that way. A good many have grown and have a wider vision, are more internationally minded, and have a sympathetic feeling for other peoples. In some quarters still something is left of prejudice plus a great deal of ignorance of the world's affairs."

Hopes for Better Understanding.

"I hope to see these Americans emerge from their mental feudalism and become a nation of world wide understanding and sympathy, discarding their prejudices and taking on an understanding of the problems that others have to face."

"Every Man His Own Barber"

Chicagoan Sets Pace by "Cutting His Own" as Shop Masters Talk of 75 Cents for Haircuts.

Fred Johnson dolls himself up.

[TRIBUNE PHOTO.]

When Fred Johnson learned that the price of haircuts might advance to 75 cents, he said nothing, but acted. He invested in a pair of clippers and a razor. He already had a razor, a leather brush and a mug.

"Cut your own hair," is Mr. Johnson's motto. "Any man can be his own barber," he says. "All one needs is a little self-confidence and perseverance."

If you wish to make it snappy, wind up the victrola.

Mr. Johnson figures he will save $18.50 a year, in addition to tips, on the basis of a haircut every two weeks at 75 cents.

Evansville barbers already have raised their prices. Haircuts will cost 65 cents starting Monday, and shave 35 cents.

Hope for a Settlement.

Following a conference here between the French and a Turkish nationalist delegation, the members of which escaped from Constantinople to avoid deportation by the British, a general political and military improvement in Cilicia, where American lives are imperiled, is expected.

The delegation attempted to open negotiations for an armistice. The French reported the conversations as amiable, and, although no definite agreement was reached, the delegation promised to ask Mustafa Kemal to quit fighting the French. The delegation, including Halide Bey, Schweket Bey, Nashed Bey, governor of Angora, and Ibrahim Bey, all influential nationalists, left Beirut on a French cruiser en route to Angora to report. Later the delegation plans going to Daghestan, the bolshevik headquarters in the Caucasus.

POLES DEFEAT REDS IN UKRAINE; CAPTURE 15,000

American Flyers Raid the Enemy Lines.

WARSAW, April 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The resistance of the bolsheviks has been broken in South Ukraine, according to today's official communiqué, which announces that the Poles have captured Mohilev and are now moving southeast along the Dniester.

The Poles have captured 15,000 prisoners, sixty cannons, hundreds of machine guns, and seventy-six locomotives since their offensive began, the communiqué adds.

Simultaneously with the cavalry and infantry attack from the west Polish forces sailed down the Pripiet river and met the bolshevik flotilla head on.

A pitched battle ensued. Two of the bolshevik monitors were sunk and four monitors and forty other boats were captured. The remainder of the red flotilla retreated.

A great amount of food and stores of ammunition and army supplies and a wireless station were taken with the occupation of Czernobyl, the communiqué said.

Kieff is Poles' Objective.

Czernobyl is ninety kilometers north of Kieff. The stronghold was occupied on Thursday, after severe fighting, the Poles attacking from the west and northwest. In the attack the Poles used cavalry in covering the marsh lands, and the infantry was protected by lighting craft.

Gen. Petura, the Ukrainian leader, has left Warsaw for the front. It is understood that this is preparatory to joining forces with Gen. Piusaski, the commander in chief of the Poles, who is planning to enter Kieff at the head of the Ukrainians, who are fighting side by side with the Poles in the advance toward the independent capital of the Ukrainians.

Yanks Make Many Air Raids.

The Kocziusko squadron, composed of American aviators, made thirty-two raids and some flights of more than sixty miles within the bolshevik lines, the communiqué continues, the Americans bombing and machine gunning railroad centers and scattering propaganda in Kiev and other cities.

At many points the bolshevik used anti-aircraft guns against the aviators and in less important places concentrated machine gun fire upon the pilots, who always attacked from an altitude of less than 2,000 feet. Two of the most important raids were led by Lieut. Herman Rortzen, of Wilmington, N. C.

The bolsheviks are sending the 5th and 8th divisions from the Caucasus region to reinforce the 12th soviet army, which has its headquarters at Kieff. A further communication issued by the war office says:

"The offensive began on we have nearly defeated the 12th army. In the resulting actions the 77th and 78th divisions have been destroyed. The remainder of the bolsheviks are retreating eastward."

"The enemy has suffered heavily in killed or wounded."

Soviet Still Wants Peace.

A wireless communication regarding the Polish offensive has been received by the Polish press, the press bureau of the soviet foreign office. It asserts the bolsheviks are not yet defeated and have not changed their peace intentions.

"In view of the fact the Poles and the Russian soviet government have been unable to agree regarding the proposed meeting of the peace conference at Brest-Litovsk, the soviet government is willing to meet Polish delegates at Grodno or Bialystok, near Warsaw, if the Poles will agree upon a date."

DANIELS REVIEWS NAVY WHILE OUT ON BOUNDING SEA

On Board the U. S. S. Pennsylvania at Sea, April 30.—(By Wireless, via Camp May, N. J.)—Secretary Daniels joined the homeward bound Atlantic fleet today on the last leg of its journey for New York, and for the first time of the flagship Pennsylvania saw speeded dreadnaughts surrounded by a screen of destroyers, with seaplanes from the Norfolk base circling the group.

The secretary, who will review the fleet in New York tomorrow, and his party boarded the flagship inside the Virginia capes, and when the super-dreadnaught resumed her place at special two-hour speed test under perfect weather conditions was held, during which a pace of nineteen knots was reached.

NEW BEDFORD MILLS TO CLOSE; STRIKE ANSWER

New Bedford, Mass., April 30.—The New Bedford Cotton Manufacturers' association tonight sent a reply to the Textile council refusing to grant a conference which the council had requested "for the purpose of averting a strike" of 20,000 operatives already called for next Monday morning in eighteen mills. The manufacturers announced their intention of shutting down the mills if a sufficient number of operatives should fail to report for work on Monday.

Passaic Mills Shut Down.

Passaic, N. J., April 30.—Uncertainty in the wool market and the cancellation of large orders have necessitated the suspension of night work in the woolen mills here, manufacturers said today. Two local mills have laid off 2,000 workers already and others are preparing to suspend night work soon.

Jury Acquires Bisbee Man of Kidnaping I. W. W.

Tombstone, Ariz., April 30.—Harry E. Wooten, Bisbee hardware dealer, charged with kidnaping in connection with the Bisbee deportations of 1917, was acquitted by the jury tonight. Only one ballot was taken.

"This verdict will have no effect on the prosecution of 159 defendants in the 'blanket case,' trial of which will begin June 7," County Attorney Robert N. French said. "The defendants will be tried jointly."

"BLUEBEARD" BY CONFESSION, TO CHEAT GALLOWES

Los Angeles, Cal., April 30.—Walter Andrew Watson, also known as James R. Huitt, will be indicted by the county grand jury next Monday for the murder of Nina Lee Delaney, according to W. C. Doran, chief deputy district attorney, after a conference with Watson's attorney. Watson then will appear in court and plead guilty. In consideration of his plea and the savings to the state, the district attorney will ask for a sentence of life imprisonment against him, instead of the death penalty, Doran announced.

Besides the murder of the Delaney woman, Watson, the police said, confessed to killing Betty Fryer, another "wife," with a hammer. He also told of the deaths of two others—Bertha Goodnick and Alice Ludvigson, also "wives"—by accident, and added that "there might have been a few more," the police declared.

More than twenty-five marriages have been attributed to Watson. Seven "wives" are listed as missing. They include, besides the four named in the alleged confession, Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, Seattle; Beatrice M. Andrews of Canada and England, and Agnes Wilson, Alberta, Canada.

ITALY TO BAR USE OF ALL AUTOS EXCEPT ARMY'S, DIPLOMATS'

LONDON, April 30.—A royal decree is soon to be published in Italy prohibiting the use of automobiles, in view of the serious shortage of petrol and the high rate of exchange, according to announcement in the Corriere d'Italia, which is forwarded by the Central News correspondent at Rome.

Exceptions, the newspaper says, are to be made only in the case of military cars and those at the disposal of diplomats and ministers.

The first change, it is understood, would provide for more severe treatment for the perpetrators of actual crimes; the second would grant the Irish almost the same freedom of speech as in England, and the third would provide official publicity of all happenings in Ireland.

The intention now is that the new Irish officials will attempt to govern along these lines.

FAT SLICERS TO WALK OFF A FEW SURPLUS ROLLS

Men and Women to Compete in Sunday Stroll.

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

Ruin, shine or shiver—the walk is on for tomorrow morning at 10:30 from THE TRIBUNE office. We've challenged the Doctor's ladies to a walk. Contrary to an impression that's gone out, it isn't going to be a speed contest, nor an endurance test of mileages. It's going to be just a nice, jog-trot walk with sufficient "pep" in it to shake off a pound, or two, maybe.

So, ladies, and men, too, don't be afraid you are going to be run off your feet. You're not! We will let you decide on the mileage limit before we start.

It is going to be an early rising contest for a Sunday a. m., though! But since being badly of morning sickness is one of the reasons why fat prospers in certain communities there is method in this 10:30 a. m. Sunday start.

All Are Invited.

"They've got to get up early in the a. m. if they expect to beat us at this game," say my squad in reference to the Doctor's feminine opposition in the race to Slimtown.

Are you going to fool 'em, ladies, and all be here at THE TRIBUNE at the appointed hour? You better by way of defending your sex and the honorable Doctor's cause.

Yes, come on along, because we are going to have a good walk and a lot of fun thrown in. You may bring along your women friends or your men friends if you wish. Whether he or she is lean or fat or medium. Any one who wants to get the benefit of the walk may join in and feel more than welcome.

Women Have Work-Out.

At 220 South State street, the gymnastic home of M. J. Dwyer, there congregated last evening fifteen of Dr. John Dill Robertson's star performers. You ought to see Miss Nellie Leonard toss the weights around. Miss Nellie is the doctor's star pupil, you know. She couldn't be weighed at the gym last night because Mr. Dwyer's scales were inadequate for the job.

"You wait a week or two. I'll be able to weigh on your skinny scales," she laughed good naturedly.

But she certainly goes after the exercise as if she meant it. If I weren't so confident in my men I might lose heart when I look in on a scene like that of last evening. No time did they lose after they jumped into their mid-air and bloomed the piece bathing suits. One hopped into the rowboat and began to train her arms down, another took the stationary bicycle like the proverbial duck and the water pond. Everybody laughing heartily all the while at the other's good nature.

Menu for Today.

Miss Donnelly says the following menu should be used for today:

BREAKFAST.
Baked apple or stewed prunes without sugar.
One small, thin slice rye bread without butter.
Two eggs poached or soft boiled.
Unwaxed black coffee.

LUNCHEON.
Vegetable soup (enough to satisfy).
Three small crackers.
DINNER.
Broiled or roast beef, lamb, or fowl.
Two vegetables (no bean, peas or potatoes).
One small, thin slice rye bread.
Unwaxed black coffee or tea or buttermilk.
The helpings of meat and vegetables at dinner are just a normal portion and one helping only.

One of the 700 Arrested in Chief Garrity's War on Crime. The Police Say He Once Robbed the Chicago Postoffice.

CHARLES RANDALL.

(TRIBUNE Photo.)

A number of underworld notables, including a couple of Methuselahs, have gained the sheltering arms of the police since Chief Garrity started his spring drive, which to date has netted 700 suspects.

The Old-Ten Twins, as the police wagglishly style them, are Charles Randall, 77 years, and George Lawrence, only 74. Mr. Randall, who packs the alias of Carson, topped a long record of crime about twenty years ago by carting away all that was not nailed down in the Chicago postoffice. Capt. Max Daner recognized him when detectives brought him in yesterday.

Mr. Lawrence, who also bats 1,000 in the crime league, will spend the spring training season dusting bricks at the brickyard. He was arrested at his own request for shoplifting. Capt. Max Daner said, he said, Judge Stewart asked him his pleasure. About thirty days, he said. He got it.

"I am convinced this campaign will rid Chicago not only of the gentlemanly burglar of the Harrigan type but also of the moron, the thug, and the automobile thief," said the chief last night. "We are going to keep after them until they get out."

The jury, which had been out nearly thirty-six hours, stood 8 to 4 for conviction. The defendant was not brought into court. Her bond of $2,000 was continued.

JURY DISAGREES IN TABOR CASE

Paw Paw, Mich., April 30.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Sarah I. Tabor, 80 years old, of Lawton, Mich., who is charged with manslaughter in connection with the mysterious death of her daughter, Maudie Tabor Virgo, reported a disagreement tonight and was discharged by Judge Howard Wiest. The case goes over to the next circuit court term which opens the middle of May, but it was indicated a postponement to October would be sought.

The jury, which had been out nearly thirty-six hours, stood 8 to 4 for conviction. The defendant was not brought into court. Her bond of $2,000 was continued.

OFFICIAL BRITAIN SEES STAGE RIOT AS PRIVATE ROW

U. S. Stars Pack 'Em In; London Glad of It.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

LONDON, April 30.—The foreign office has made a thorough investigation of the rumor that the riot which broke up the first night of J. Hartley Manners' play, "One Night in Rome," in which Miss Laurette Taylor was the principal, was inspired by anti-Americanism. The government is satisfied the rumor is utterly groundless. The much likelier theory is it was the work of personal enemies of Manager Cochrane, who has had a bitter fight with the Actors' association and also with his fellow managers. It is also a fact that the play was badly staged and the gallery could see nothing.

"U. S. ACTRESSES TOP 'OLE"

LONDON, April 30.—[By the Associated Press.]—The tremendous success of three young American actresses who arrived in London within a fortnight, coupled with the fact that nearly every successful production in London has Americans in the cast, has prompted theatrical writers to ask why England cannot produce actresses as well as the United States. They point out that there is at present no outstanding young British actor or actress playing in London. Some of the writers have complained of what they termed "a new American invasion."

Morris Gest, the American theatrical producer, was in London. The Daily Sketch interviewed him. This is what he had to say:

"Certain native feelings seem to have been hurt. For motives I do not clearly understand, people are resenting toward what he calls 'the American invasion.'"

English Girls Equally Clever.

"He asserts there are English girls quite as clever. That is one reason I am in London—to engage some of them for American."

"The writer seems to object that these American girls are keeping three English girls from playing leading roles in London theaters. This is absurd. You might as well banish Puccini's music, send Pavlova and the Russian ballet back to Petrograd, and notify the great Sarah Bernhardt that England does not want her—because all are keeping some English talent out of a salary."

"These three American girls have won London's approval because they are clever girls and London is going to see more clever American girls. To counterbalance this so-called 'American invasion' let me point out that English stars coming to New York are almost invariably received with great enthusiasm."

"Probably when I return to New York I shall hear a few disgruntled persons in my own country say: 'The English invasion is upon us.'"

Box Office Tells Story.

While the controversy is progressing acridly through the columns of the newspapers theater managers who have been keen enough to contract with American entertainers are packing their houses.

G. O. P. OLD GUARD LEADS OUT KNOX AS DARK HORSE

Accepts Wilson Offer of Treaty as Issue.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 30.—[Special.]—Wide interest was excited in political circles today by the publication of an interview with Senator Boies Penrose wherein he intimated with emphasis his colleague, Senator Philander C. Knox as a candidate for the presidency.

Among the friends of Gov. Spruell the statement was not regarded as a slap at the movement to make the latter the nominee, although that was the view taken in some quarters.

"The primaries do not seem to have developed any paramount candidates," Senator Penrose said at his home, 1331 Spruce street. "If we are to be asked to take up a candidate of the type of the governor of Illinois we have a right immediately to turn in with all our strength for Gov. Spruell."

Knox Best All-Round.

"My own personal opinion, after considerable reflection and without consulting the principal party concerned or any one else, and without any knowledge as to whether he would take the place, has recently persuaded me that Senator Knox is the best equipped, all-round international statesman to meet the requirements of the present situation who is available in public life."

"While doubtless several other candidates could be nominated and elected, I especially believe a unanimity could be secured on Senator Knox with considerable facility."

Gov. Spruell this afternoon concurred in Penrose's endorsement of Senator Knox and stated his belief that the junior senator "is probably the best equipped international statesman."

Starts Washington Gossip.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—[Special.]—Developments today pointed to a new deal with reference to the Republican candidate for president. Coincident with the publication of an interview in Philadelphia with Senator Penrose advocating the nomination of Senator Knox, Republican senators and representatives here began talking seriously of Senator Knox as the dark horse of the G. O. P. stable.

This talk, begun before Mr. Penrose gave out his interview, gained additional interest when Mr. Penrose was visited in Philadelphia today by Representative Bacon Stump of Virginia, and David Mulvane, both national committeemen.

Senator Penrose has been recognized as the leader of the old guard in the Republican party, and his endorsement of Knox, it is understood, was told to the old guard leaders who were for him if he could "make good."

The progress made by Gen. Leonard Wood for the presidential nomination, and to a less extent the progress made in the same direction by Senator Hiram Johnson of California, has worried the old guard considerably, particularly developments of the last few days.

Peace Treaty "Safe" Issue.

The progress made by Johnson in state primaries and elsewhere has given the old guard the impression

WHEN NECESSITY DRIVES

Two Little Dunning Boys, Members of a Family of Seven Tornado Refugees, Turn Cooks When Mother Becomes Ill.

ALBERT (AT LEFT) AND WILLIAM DARBY. (TRIBUNE Photo.)

If there's a feller in the world who needs a friend, it's William Darby's cook stove. Yesterday was a particularly bad day for it—smoke, chills, and everything.

Mr. Darby lives in a remodeled dry goods box in Dunning. He was a victim of the recent tornado in which forty-two homes in the district were destroyed and seventy-two others badly damaged. The Chicago chapter of the Red Cross is trying to raise a fund of $150,000 to rebuild the district, but is $30,000 short of the minimum necessary to start.

Thomas, 5 years old, and William Jr., 3 years old, tried to coax the old cook stove into action yesterday, so they could heat some water to wash the breakfast dishes. Their mother had gone to the hospital, and their father was sleeping. He works nights.

"When our house was blown away the stove went with it," William explained. "We never did find the house, but the stove we picked up a piece at a time. It's all together now, but it won't burn. I wish we had a new one. It gets cold out here nights, and the stove is the only way we've got of heating the house."

Besides William and Thomas, the family includes Katherine, 10 years old; Arthur, 6, and James, 2. There are more than fifty families in similar plight.

"Give anything," is the plea of Ald. Edward P. Armitage, chairman of the council relief committee. "A dollar, fifty cents, even a quarter. But give! These people are suffering acutely. Clothing, furniture—everything they had was destroyed. If Chicagoans could only see how they are living, I am sure they would open their purses."

The following contributions were added yesterday to the Tuxedo fund for the relief of the tornado victims:

that it would not hurt Republican chances in November to have the peace treaty made an issue with the Republican party committed to the action of the senate in practically rejecting the league of nations covenant. The espousal of Senator Knox by Senator Penrose indicates the dark horse chosen.

Senator Knox was one of the foremost opponents of the league of nations. He is the author of the resolution offered in the senate today declaring the state of war with Germany at an end.

DRYS HAVE CLUB FOR CANDIDATE WITH 'WET' COAT

To Watch Conventions for Sign of Dampness.

Westerville, O., April 30.—Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois is the only presidential candidate so far whom the Anti-Saloon League of America has approved as suitable to the prohibitionists.

In a statement given out tonight Dr. P. A. Baker, general superintendent of the league, says, after a brief review of Gov. Lowden's record on prohibition, that "prohibitionists consistently can support him if he is nominated."

Senator Warren G. Harding's prohibition record is reviewed at considerable length, but no definite statement as to his acceptability or nonacceptability is made.

Grievance Against Harding.

"Senator Harding of Ohio usually votes with the drys, but always talks for the wets," the statement says, and adds: "When the eighteenth amendment was pending in the senate Harding announced from the floor that he was not a prohibitionist, that he failed to see in it a 'moral question,' and that he favored compensating the liquor traffic. Of course, any man who favors compensating the liquor traffic would not be able to see in it a moral issue."

Senator Hiram Johnson of California, the statement says, "is being solidly supported by the liquor interests of California, not because of any particular service he has rendered them but because he seems to command the support of the disaffected, and the liquor people just at this time are very much disaffected."

DRYS AGGRESSIVE

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] Washington, D. C., April 30.—[Special.]—Recognizing that there will be a wet and dry struggle in both political conventions, the Anti-Saloon league is preparing to pick a candidate for the presidential nomination in each major party who can be supported on a platform of strict enforcement of the prohibition law and is opposed to light wine and beer amendments to the enforcement code.

The Anti-Saloon league leaders are confident that the wets cannot win in either party convention, but they are going to be ready to throw their resources into each convention and, if necessary, to unite their strength upon one man in each party who will stand valiantly for a dry plank in the platform. Of course, they are looking toward William Jennings Bryan or some one he will recommend in the Democratic camp.

Political observers here, viewing the situation as the wets will attempt to create it, do not see how the resolutions committee in either convention can be controlled by the wets! Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, said today that there is absolutely no chance to repeal the eighteenth amendment, practically no chance to get a light wine and beer amendment, and that it would be a good thing—both political parties to face the facts and come out boldly for dry enforcement.

WILSON SELECTS 31 C. C. MEMBERS

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Two new interstate commerce commissioners were nominated today by President Wilson. A third has been selected and his name will be sent to the senate as soon as he consents to serve.

Henry Jones Ford, professor of politics at Princeton university, and James Duncan of Quincy, Mass., a vice president of the American Federation of Labor, were named today.

The nominations automatically were referred to the senate interstate commerce committee, which probably will consider them next week. There was no discussion in the senate when the nominations were received, but opposition to the appointments was expressed privately by several Democratic and Republican members of the committee, as well as by other senators.

SENATE AMENDS BILL TO DECLARE AUSTRIAN PEACE

Debate Starts Wednesday on End of War Plan.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] Washington, D. C., April 30.—[Special.]—By a strict party vote of 9 to 6 the senate foreign relations committee today favorably reported the redrafted Knox peace resolution, after amending it to repeal the declaration of war against Austria as well as the declaration against Germany.

Senator Lodge, chairman of the committee, formally reported the resolution to the senate and gave notice that he would move to take it up next Wednesday.

Urges Treaty of Amity.

Besides repealing the declarations of war against Germany and Austria, the Knox resolution nullifies wartime legislation, requests the president to open negotiations with Germany for a treaty of commerce and amity, retains all money accumulated by the alien property custodian until claims of Americans against Germany are adjusted, and holds all rights and advantages obtained by the United States under the terms of the armistice and the treaty of Versailles.

Close Vote Looked For.

Indications are that the vote in the senate will be close. There are signs of several defections from the Republican ranks, but three or four Democrats are expected to vote for the measure.

Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, who continues to act as the Democratic spokesman on foreign affairs, declared himself unalterably opposed to the resolution.

POST NULLIFIED FEDERAL DRIVE ON REDS, CHARGE

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Administration by Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor, of radical transportation cases was attacked and defended today before the house rules committee, which is investigating Mr. Post's official conduct.

Members of the immigration committee, headed by Chairman Johnson, declared they had evidence that government efforts to break up "the most damnable conspiracy in the nation's history" were practically nullified through release by the department of labor, largely at the instance of Mr. Post, of most of the 5,000 communists arrested in the nationwide raids.

The course of the department of labor, including that of the assistant secretary, was defended by Jackson H. Ralston, counsel for Mr. Post, who declared the only criticism that could be directed against his administration was that he had "exercised humanity."

FRANCIS TELLS WHY HE FIRED CITY ENGINEERS

Charges Misuse of Time and Public Records.

Commissioner Charles R. Francis yesterday made public the basis of his removal Thursday of Thomas G. Pihlfield, engineer of bridges; Hugh E. Young, engineer of bridge design, and other employees of the department. As predicted by THE TRIBUNE, he alleges misuse of public records, time, and property. Formal charges will be filed before the civil service commission within thirty days.

"Some time ago I found that Messrs. Pihlfield and Young had organized a private corporation known as the Chicago Bridge and Road Company, with offices at 115 North La Salle street," said Mr. Francis. "Its business was designing and supervising the construction of bridges—in other words, doing for outside interests what they were employed and paid to do for the city of Chicago."

City Employees Used.

"Most of the employees of that company are now on the city pay roll or are city employees on leaves of absence granted by Messrs. Pihlfield and Young."

"I am advised that the principal assets of the company are drawings, plans, etc., which are the property of the city, and that city data, city drawing materials, and city offices were used by this bridge company for their work."

"I consider the taking and the copying of these drawings and the use of the city's property and employees under such circumstances as a gross and brazen betrayal of the best interests of the people."

Charges Are Denied.

A complete denial of the charges was made last night by Messrs. Pihlfield and Young.

"Our official acts during the entire time we have been connected with the city have been such that we court the widest investigation," a joint statement reads. "We believe that when the commissioner of public works has had a greater opportunity to investigate our conduct concerning our respective offices a spirit of fair-mindedness will impel him to the conclusion that he was erroneously informed and advised in the preliminary action he has taken."

"When the commissioner's charges are filed we will engage counsel and will make a proper reply at that time."

Outside of the typewritten statements issued, none of the principals would talk of the affair.

It became known, however, that much of the information upon which Commissioner Francis based his charges was gained through tapped telephones and dictaphones leading into the offices of the Pihlfield-Young Bridge company.

LIP STICK, BLIND TO GIRL'S WOES, WRITES EPITAPH

Cabaret Singer Quits Gay Party to Die.

Marie Williams was tired of life, tired of singing and dancing and smiling gayly for a living, tired of rouge and the lipstick.

She was a singer in a north side garden. She lived with Edna Burton in two rooms and a kitchenette at 4783 Magnolia avenue. She was divorced not long ago. She had gone back to Wilmington, Del., her home town, to win her suit. She visited her mother there, and then returned to Chicago.

Leaves Gay Party.

There was a gay party at the Green Mill garden yesterday morning. Marie was there and Edna, and some jolly drinkers. But Marie went home in the middle of the merriment, and Edna went to the house of a girl friend.

Yesterday afternoon a milkman called the attention of Morris Brown, janitor at the Magnolia avenue flats, to a peculiar gas odor.

Message on Mirror.

They found Marie lying dead when they broke in the door. Six burners of the gas stove had been turned on. They looked all around for a note that would tell the motive. They found her message on a mirror.

"Have no pencil," it read. "Tell mother I am at ease. 201 East Fourteenth street, Wilmington, Del. Mrs. S. I. Williams."

She had no pencil, and there was neither pen nor ink in the place. The red lip stick that had helped to hide her secret, had traced the message that revealed it.

WIFE SEES FOR DIVORCE.

Albert C. Lewis of 5449 Cornell avenue, secretary of the Western Bottle Manufacturing company, with a $15,000 yearly income, was sued for divorce yesterday by Mrs. Geraldine Lewis. She charges her husband has remained away from home for months at a time and has spent his money freely on unattached women.

Delightfully Fashioned for Summer

$3.50: $5: $7.50: $12.75: $15

THERE is a welcome newness about these most recent arrivals, with the crispness of organdies, the sheerness of voiles, or the novelty of color-barred cottons. And they are made with an engaging simplicity—to slip over, having no fastenings, or in simulated slipover effects with effective vestees. Five of many entrancing Summer blouse modes are pictured.

Voile at $3.50

Sketched at the left above, with cross-tucked vestee and elbow cuffs. The eyelet embroidered collar and the cuffs are edged with dainty, narrow lace.

Organdie at $5

Delightful in its crispness and clean making, this slipover Blouse is cross-tucked in clusters, and has tucked collar and elbow cuffs, edged with lace.

Color-Barred Voile at $7.50

The Blouse at the center is decidedly new with its color-barred cottons, cross-stitched by hand with colored wool.

Organdie and Voile at $12.75

Exquisite in its daintiness is the Blouse second from the right, with collar, finely tucked vestee and cuffs of the organdie. It has lace edging and a black ribbon tie.

Crepe Georgette at $15

The Blouse at the right, with its short, tucked sleeves, button-trimmed and lace-accented, gains additional loveliness with its front panel of fine Fillet lace. The same hand-made lace edges the round neck and the sides of the front.

The May Sale features many other blouses in addition to these pictured.

IN ordinary years, prices like these on Gloves of such qualities would be unusual. But this year, when merchandise is difficult to obtain, when factories are behind on their orders, when Gloves of such character are not easy to obtain, the prices are the more remarkable.

All the Care of Making, the Beauty of Finish and Quality of Material Usually Offered have been retained in these Gloves of standard workmanship. Only the prices have been lowered for this Selling.

The Gloves are all fresh stock—shown in complete size and color assortments. Every pair is double tipped as to fingers; made of the tricot and milanese weaves of pure silk, which retain their luster and shape so satisfactorily even with frequent washings.

At 95c—Tricot silk Gloves, two-clasp style, white with contrasting embroidery on the backs. Very special.

At $1.15—Milanese silk, two-clasp, black, also white, and a good assortment of colors, with two-toned, solid and Paris Point embroidery.

At $1.35—Milanese silk Gloves, two-clasp, of a heavier quality, offered in many desirable shades and stitchings; also black and white.

Special Selling of Hats at $15

Continues Today

SO much interest has been manifested in the Hats shown this week in the American and English Rooms at this attractive pricing, that we are glad to announce fresh arrivals to augment the assortments, for Saturday buyers. Sketched is one of the Hats—made of batavia cloth, hand-stitched with bright colored wools, the edge of the brim being stitched to match. There are many other styles, ostrich, flower and quill trimmed, suited for street and dress wear.

GOV. COX BOASTS QUITE A RECORD; HE'S OHIO, TOO

State Is a Pivot in Presidential Fight.

This is the fourteenth in Mr. Evans' series of sketches of the presidential possibilities.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

The chief campaign assets of Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio may be inventoried:

One strategic position.

One strategy.

One record as governor.

The strategy—He lives in Ohio, which will be the pivot of the Democratic campaign in the great lakes basin and the eastern states this year, as it was in 1916. Four years ago the winning combination was the solid south, plus Ohio, plus the region west of the Missouri river. To put up anything approximating a real fight this year the Democrats again need Ohio, and Cox is just the boy to nail the state down and salt it away—so his managers are spreading the gospel.

Naturally enough, this is the counterpart of one argument the Republicans have been hearing from the managers of Senator Warren G. Harding, also of Ohio; that is, the idea was being boomed resolutely up to Tuesday, when Gen. Leonard Wood in the primaries left the senator looking somewhat like Samson after the haircut—trimmed to suit.

Three Time Governor.

The augury—Mr. Cox has been elected governor of Ohio three times, the only Democrat ever so distinguished. The only other three term governor Ohio has had was a Republican, Rutherford B. Hayes, who stepped from Columbus to the White House.

The record—In his first term Gov. Cox had the big flood; in his second term, the war; in this third, the reconstruction problems. As to his resourcefulness and capability as an administrator, the voters of Ohio gave a verdict when he came up for his third term. Cox ran 75,000 votes ahead of the congressional ticket and was the only Democratic state officer elected.

Some of His Legislation.

Dispassionate observers declare that in his six years as governor Cox has effected more constructive changes in Ohio's government than any three or four of his predecessors. Most of this fundamental legislation was enacted in his first term. It included a budget system, a civil service for state, county, and city departments, compulsory workmen's compensation, a complete reorganization of the public schools, a state-aid highway system, which has developed into a $30,000,000 a year program, and a long list of other measures dealing with labor, social service, business service, and agriculture.

Cox started as a printer's devil. He was born fifty years ago at Jacksonburg, O., and after a high school education he learned the printer's trade, then taught school, became a newspaper reporter, and went to Washington as secretary to a congressman.

He bought the Dayton Daily News in 1898, and five years later purchased the Springfield Press, Republican, and changed its name and politics. In 1908 he was elected to congress and served two terms.

His Work During Flood.

Cox had hardly been inaugurated as governor in 1913 when his mettle was tested by the great flood which devastated Ohio. He did great work; any one

BRUCE D. SMITH'S BROTHER SILENT ON FISHER CASE

Banker's Name Not in Divorce Evidence.

Everyone concerned, who could be reached yesterday, either refused to talk or denied that Bruce Donald Smith, former vice president of the Northern Trust company, was in any way involved in the marital troubles of his former friend, Lieut. George Farnsworth Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Fisher, of 1440 Astor street.

Mrs. Florence Fisher was granted a divorce by Judge McGorty on Wednesday. She was awarded the custody of the two children, George Farnsworth Fisher, Jr., 8 years old, and Florence, 5 years old. She asked that her alimony rights be held in reserve.

Lieut. Fisher, who commanded an aero squadron overseas and was seriously injured, being discharged as "totally disabled," is said to be at a lumber camp near Plato, Mich. It was said yesterday by Attorney Richard S. Tutthill, Jr., one of her attorneys, that Mrs. Fisher, with the children, is on her way to San Diego, Cal., where she has a house at Coronado Beach. Bruce D. Smith is at Coronado.

With Same Battery on Border.

Smith and Fisher were together on the Mexican border in 1916, with Battery C, First Illinois field artillery. Smith became ill and returned home. Fisher joined an aviation school and was sent overseas. Smith later followed as a captain in the gas and flame division.

According to the testimony in the divorce suit, Mrs. Fisher went to New York to visit her husband two years ago, and he told her she "had better return to Chicago," as he "would never live with her again."

About nine months ago Smith resigned his position with the bank here and went to California "to seek a position." Mrs. Fisher and the children left Chicago shortly after, also going to California.

Smith's Name Not in Suit.

"There was nothing concerning Mr. Smith in any of the evidence introduced at the divorce hearing," said Attorney Tutthill yesterday.

Solomon A. Smith, president of the Northern Trust company, and a brother of Bruce Smith, was asked about it. "I cannot discuss it at all," he said.

Smith Found at Fisher Residence.

The following telegram was received from the San Diego correspondent of THE TRIBUNE last night:

"Bruce Smith refuses to talk. Within the last month both he and Mrs. Fisher bought separate residences at Coronado; he at 930 East avenue, and she at 1100 Ocean front—half a mile apart. In an effort to locate Smith today, I telephoned to Mrs. Fisher's house and it was from there that Smith declined to discuss the case. Mrs. Fisher's mother also is there."

CHILDREN ASKED TO CUT H. C. OF L. BY $1,250,000

Schools to Aid in Home Garden Campaign.

Plans to cut the high cost of eating in Chicago by at least $1,250,000 with the aid of the school children were made yesterday afternoon at a conference between the Chicago Association of Commerce garden committee and Dudley Grant Hays, supervisor of school extension work. As a result of the meeting, the association's committee will cooperate with Mr. Hays in getting the school children to plant 120,000 truck gardens. Each of these gardens, it is expected, will produce $10 worth of vegetables.

Propaganda Is Planned.

It was agreed that the association's committee, which is headed by Benjamin Gage, landscape artist, put a representative into every school to stir up interest in the project. These representatives will confer with parent-teacher associations, school clubs, and other pupil activities.

Arrangements have been made to secure seeds for the school children at reduced rates. A bulletin giving complete information on truck gardening, including the time for planting certain seeds and the length of time necessary for the produce to mature, will also be given the embryo gardeners. It is planned to have twenty-four teachers tour the schools for the purpose of giving special instructions on gardening to the pupils.

ALD. J. A. PIOTROWSKI'S NIECE TO BECOME A BRIDE ON TUESDAY

Miss Anna Mydlowski, daughter of Alexander and Catherine Mydlowski of 2555 Cortez street, and the niece of Ald. John A. Piotrowski of the Sixteenth ward, will become the bride of Edmund F. Klajda next Tuesday. The wedding will take place in St. Helen's church at Oakley boulevard and Augusta street at 11 a. m. In the afternoon there will be a reception at St. Anna Mydlowski's. The wedding is regarded as one of the important events of the year in Chicago Polish circles.

pose of giving special instructions on gardening to the pupils.

Seeds to Plant Now.

Among the seeds which Mr. Hays urged for planting between today and May 25 are beans, cabbage, carrots, sweet corn, endive, kale, kohlrabi, leek, lettuce, melon, onion, parsley, parsnip, peas, radish, squash, Swiss chard, and tomatoes.

By paying attention to a schedule showing the time required for germination and the time necessary for growth a gardener can get in several crops throughout the summer, according to the bulletin. After one crop is harvested additional plantings of radishes and peas are urged. Radishes require only from twenty to forty days before they are ready for the table, while peas are grown in from forty to seventy-five days.

17 HEAR CALL OF FARM; WOULD QUIT CITY JOBS

Men of Many Vocations Long for Country Life.

Seventeen young men, most of whom have had some farm experience, volunteered yesterday to quit city jobs and go back to the farm. Most of them want to stay. They have come to the conclusion that the balance of good things is on the side of country life.

Paul C. Boes, who started this little experiment in solving the farm labor shortage, has been sent to the friendly hands of Farmer A. W. Davis of Big Rock. He can take his wife and baby and start anew to build up his life from the soil. No more views of brick walls and dirty back alleys, but the wide meadows and the sky of spring.

Real Longing for Farm.

This Tribune farm labor editor is trying to bring farmer and the home-sick farmer boy of Chicago together. It develops that there is a real longing on the part of many young men to return to the farms. One man, a switchman on strike, has been put in the way of a farm job. Another, sales manager in a downtown house, has asked for a list of farmers wanting help. One fellow, who has spent most of his life on a farm, came into the office to make his needs known. "I will go back to the farm if I can have a horse and buggy every Sunday," he said. Possibly some farmer can supply this. The boy is strong and experienced.

Ready to Change Jobs.

An assistant superintendent in a factory, a bookkeeper, a high school boy, an ex-service man, were among those who have asked for farm positions. For the benefit of these and others who may wish to take up this work, the following list of farmers who want help is printed:

S. Freund, Valparaiso, Ind.—Can use man and wife for work at summer resort.

Leslie Green's farm near Antioch—Room and board in farmhouse. Apply Graceland 2737.

August Burmeister, Shermanville, Ill.—Might have place for man and wife.

C. B. Congdon, Evanston 4086—Can take young man on farm near Des-plaines; can get along without much experience; can keep cow, chickens, garden.

M. C. Lobdell, Mukwonago, Wis.—Will take married man; have tenant house later.

Paul Eckstrom, Kildare 8488—Wants man to go to Asheville, N. C.; will get share of profits; mostly dairy work; can have house of his own.

Golf Nursery near Glenview links—Call Miss Cook, Harrison 5202, owner of farm and nursery; cottage and work for couple.

H. E. Swanson, 2627 North Maplewood avenue—Wants partner on Michigan fruit ranch.

Miss Sallabury, 2150 West North avenue—Wants couple who would be interested in making home at camp at Bruce Lake for girls and children. Cow, bus work, and odd jobs for man, cooking for woman. Caretaking job in winter. School near by.

E. C. Staubin, Griffith, Ind. Has steady work and good home for man and wife.

More Jobs to Come.

Some of these names have already been furnished to applicants and this bureau probably will have more if these jobs are gone. The Illinois Agricultural association, 130 North Wells street, has list of county farm advisers in Illinois who are in touch with farm places for 100 experienced men.

COURT DECISION DOUBLES COST OF STREET PAVING

Owing to the increase in the cost of materials, it is costing Chicago just twice as much to go ahead with contemplated street improvements since the Supreme court decided two weeks ago that the board of local improvements had sent a faulty resolution accompanying a street improvement ordinance to the city council some time ago. Michael J. Faherty, president of the board, yesterday told property owners gathered for hearing on contemplated improvements. The resolution was faulty because it failed to give dimensions of curbs and gutters to be put in with the paving on North Paulina street, he explained.

CHILD DIES OF SCALDS.

Margaret Murphy, 3 years old, 2003 Ogden avenue, died in the county hospital yesterday of scalds received in her home.

MARY PICKFORD CALLED TO COURT MAY 17, NEVADA

Los Angeles, Cal., April 28.—By registered mail today Mary Pickford received an envelope containing a subpoena calling her to court at Minden, Nev., on May 17, to show cause why her divorce from Owen Moore should not be declared null and void, on the ground it was obtained by collusion.

Miss Pickford, now Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, signed for the envelope and remailed it to her attorney, Gavin McNab, San Francisco.

J. W. Carter, a police captain of Reno, arrived here today with a warrant for the return to Nevada of Floyd William Weaver, charged with perjury in a Nevada divorce suit.

The Weaver case, said Carter, would be regarded as a test as to Owen Moore's status.

HIGHWAYS HELD NATIONAL, NOT A STATE, CONCERN

Baker Reports on Truck Cross Country Argosy.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., April 30.—(Special.)—Declaring problems of highway construction are national rather than the concern of the individual states, the report of the war department to the highways committee of congress, made public today, summarizes conclusions reached as a result of the survey of seventy-three trucks which blazed a trail from Washington to the Pacific coast last summer.

The report recommended the construction of a federal system of national highways.

Recommendations of the department are:

That the necessity for a comprehensive system of national highways, including transcontinental, or through, routes east and west and north and south, is real and urgent, as a commercial asset to further colonization and develop the sparsely settled sections of the country and, finally, as a defensive military necessity.

That existing roads and bridges, especially in the sparsely settled sections of the middle and far western states, are absolutely incapable of meeting present day traffic requirements.

That the road problems of the middle and far western states are national rather than local problems, as the states, while possessing vast areas and tremendous mileage of highways, have only a sparse population which cannot possibly undertake the needed highway improvement work.

RAIL CONFERENCE HERE ENDS

Federal conference of American railroads and their valuation by the government were closed at a two day conference which closed in the Congress hotel yesterday. Valuation representatives of practically all the roads in the United States attended. The conference was the first held by the federal railroad conference committee since the death of President Wilson, and was in charge of Thomas W. Hume of New York, vice chairman of the committee.

PLEA FOR CHURCHES

Each day during this week of the campaign of the Interchurch World Movement for its budget of $88,777,578 The Tribune presents a statement by a member of the citizens' committee telling why he believes in the movement and why he thinks others should support it.

BY MARQUIS RATON.

Christianity is the safety valve of our civilization—without its restraining and regulative influence we would have something approaching chaos. Lasting success in business, in government, and in life generally, in the last analysis, rests upon the Golden Rule, the Ten Commandments, and the Sermon on the Mount.

Wipe these out and our whole system of private and individual morals, as well as public order and government, is swept away.

To my mind the interchurch world movement is a natural sequence to the world war, in the wake of which there has been left a world-wide discontent and unrest, which is putting the democracy on which our peace and prosperity have rested to the severest test it has been called upon to meet.

We are face to face with the question whether our Christian civilization is adequate to meet the ideals and aspirations of mankind or shall give way to that other species of democracy typified by the bolshevism of unhappy Russia. One or the other must give way. Which shall it be?

An answer to the question lies in the interchurch world movement. In this effort thirty Christian denominations are pooling their issues and asking America to cooperate with them in vindicating and reasserting American Christian civilization.

PERILS OF A GREAT CITY.

While waiting for a train to take him to Toronto, Canada, Robert T. Smith decided to see Chicago. At Dearborn and Harrison streets an elevator trap in the sidewalk shot up and pitched Smith into the street. After a sprained shoulder and a wound in the left leg had been cared for, Smith sought the safety of the railroad station until his train started.

CON CON WILL GET PLAN TO CUT SIZE OF GRAND JURIES

Scheme Aims to Reduce Prosecution Cost.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

Springfield, Ill., April 30.—(Special.)—A subcommittee on the bill of rights, headed by Judge Wall of Mount City, decided today to recommend to the constitutional convention a new jury plan to curb crime and reduce the expense of criminal prosecutions.

At present the grand jury consists of twenty-three men. Sixteen is a quorum and twelve of a quorum can vote an indictment.

The Wall committee would have a grand jury of twelve men and permit nine of them to return an indictment. At present a justice of the peace or a Municipal judge holds preliminary hearing of a person charged with crime. If there is reason to believe he is guilty he is held to the grand jury, which returns an indictment, and the trial of the case comes later.

First Before Circuit Judge.

The Wall committee proposes that the preliminary hearing shall be held by a judge of the Circuit court. If the judge thinks the defendant is guilty, he is to be granted power to permit the state's attorney to file an information. Then the trial will follow, eliminating the justice of the peace and grand jury. This system can be applied in all except capital punishment cases, such as murder and treason.

or recommendation designed up justice in civil cases proposed of the jury of twelve may return verdict.

Agreement on Cook Judges.

An agreement has been reached between Chicago and downstate members of the convention judiciary committee to recommend the appointment of judges in Cook county if the committee from that county so decide.

On this point Cook county members are to say what shall be recommended and downstate members will decide what their court system shall be.

The country members have gone still further. They have said that if all of the delegates of Chicago will vote for appointed judges in Cook county the great majority of downstaters will add their o. k. That offer has not been accepted, because of word brought to Springfield that certain Democrats and the city hall faction of Republicans in Chicago have combined to attack a plan which provides for appointive judges, even in Chicago.

The judiciary committee will hold a public hearing in the Chicago city hall tomorrow afternoon to hear the court plan of the lawyers' association. This plan is said to have been prepared by former Senator Lewis, Clarence Darrow, Judge Newcomer, Ald. Guernsey, Elmer Brothers, and Harry W. Standridge.

Gen. Wood's Daughter to Drive Truck in France

Mrs. Gen. Leonard Wood's daughter, Louise Barbara, applied for a passport to France yesterday. She is going to drive a truck in the work of reconstruction, she declares. She expects to sail in June. Miss Wood is 20 years old, the youngest of the general's three children. The oldest, Leonard Jr., is a captain on his father's staff.

A New Two-Pants Suit Idea

We Invite Men to Consider the Advantages of Our Improved Plan for Supplying Extra Trousers

SOME men and young men want two-pants suits. But not all. We have worked out a plan which leaves you free to decide whether your suit shall include one or two pairs of trousers; and you pay for only what you want.

UNDER this new plan Klee customers may select suits just as they always have, for style, quality and value, and not merely because suits include two pairs of trousers.

We Supply Two-Pants Suits At $37.50 to $84.50

And we save you money. It's done this way: We have the all-wool fabrics to match many suits in our stocks; you make selection from regular lines, suits from finest makers, latest styles; and if you want extra trousers to match, we make them to your measure at small additional cost.

Immense Lines of Suits

We welcome inspection; our saving of overhead gives you better quality for your money or the quality you have had for less money; spring lines now complete; finest all-wool suits, from America's best makers, newest colors, and including latest style novelties for young men, $35 to $75

A Special Purchase Brings Unusual Values in

Boys' Spring Suits Priced $19.75

Each with Two Pairs of Knickerbockers

This special selling brings a real opportunity. Mothers will be quick, we believe, to recognize the value-giving qualities in these fabrics. And boys will, as certainly, choose these styles, for they are the sort boys like for spring wear.

They are of all-wool mixtures in patterns that are much wanted at this time.

And the tailoring, in every detail of workmanship, shows these suits to be out-of-the-ordinary in value. All sizes from 8 to 17 years are included, priced $19.75.

PRIEST RESCUES SHELTON FROM PIT OF DESPAIR

BY FREDERICK SMITH.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[By Special Cable.]
YUNNANFU, South China, March 26.—The closing entries in the diary of Dr. A. L. Shelton, the Kansas missionary held by the Chinese bandits for several months, reveal the unflagging devotion and energy in his behalf of a French Catholic priest. The negotiations of the priest were responsible for the eventual release of the American. The closing entries in the diary follow:

THIEVES WITHOUT HONOR

BY DR. A. L. SHELTON.
Final Section.
Jan. 21.—The Catholic priest came to the temple about 11 p. m. He stayed and talked terms until about 1:30 a. m. It is going to be hard to settle, as they think they have the upper hand and want to keep it. Father Bailly is a kindly old man of 60 or more. Has been here thirty years. He said he would come up this afternoon. The Catholic priest says Yang's family left the capital yesterday, so should reach here tomorrow sometime. The temple service here, morning and afternoon, is very nice. The priest came again this afternoon and tried every way in his power to get them to let me go. No use. They have the upper hand and expect to keep it.

The Slippery Chinese.

Jan. 23.—The priest is going for the chief's family today. Night: The Catholic priest came again and asked them to turn me over to him, as their people had been put into the priest's hands. But, like all Chinese, they don't want to keep their side of the bargain. They finally promised to take me down tomorrow, but I don't think they will. They intend to keep firm hold of me until they get what they want. I begged the priest not to humiliate himself further by begging for what they had promised, but to drop the case and let them do as they pleased.

Jan. 24.—The priest's hair and beard turned white in fifteen days. The advisability of killing me—would it not be the governor into any great trouble?—also was discussed. They are desperate and will go to any extremes. My wife and babies are safe, so the most they can do is to kill me.

Brings Government Officials.

Jan. 26.—The Catholic priest got the government representatives to come to day.

Fourth.—Things have been moving since 9 o'clock last night. At midnight the captain came in saying that he and the governor's men had come to an agreement. If the governor would sanction it. So this morning he let me move into the Catholic place, but sent a guard of ten men along. The government men are going back today. They sent for the priest to go to Los Ya Guan to get the French consul to help them to get the governor to come to what they had agreed.

The priest came back. The governor refuses conditions. Everything is where it was in the beginning.

Depths of Despair.

Ninth.—I asked the captain to shoot me this morning and quit running all around. I told him this was the day for me to go back or to be killed. He says he is taking me now to Wuting to turn me over to an official friend of his.

Tenth, 4 p. m.—If something doesn't come off soon I will fight Yang for the leadership of the band. I can command the small half now.

Eleventh.—Two men were shot this morning. Perhaps the two deaths were to intimidate me.

Fight with Soldiers.

Eighteenth, 5 p. m.—Soldiers came suddenly. Attack, fight, flight, until 4 o'clock in the morning. Rest until 5:30, went on 120 li to a point near the Yangtze. Nearly tired to death. A company of soldiers compassed Yang about the steepest mountain yet. They have given up hope of getting back to civil life.

Twenty-first—Seven weeks today, and they had another fight with the soldiers. Five were wounded, one left to die. Four were carried along.

The Tibetan cook, Shen Si, sent by Mrs. Shelton, reached Dr. Shelton's mountain on the evening of the 23d, but was not permitted to see the doctor until the following morning. Dr. Shelton then gave him the book on the margins of whose pages was written the diary.

Brazilian Admiral Here to Solicit Chicago Trade

Admiral Cordiero da Graça of the Brazilian navy arrived at the Hotel La Salle yesterday with his aids. He will remain several days as personal representative of the Brazilian government to encourage Chicago manufacturers to market their wares in Brazil, utilizing the new steamship line to New Orleans established by his government.

LITTLE MOTHER IS MISSING; FATHER STARTS SEARCH

Fearing his 15 year old daughter Alice may have been lured away from Chicago, Jacob Bernhardt, a fireman employed by the Cook Lumber company, yesterday appealed to THE TRIBUNE to aid his search for her.

Alice left her home at 2847 West Twenty-second street on Jan. 13. The following day she was seen riding in an auto mobile truck with a man who is ALICE BERNHARDT, now being sought by the police. According to her father, Alice had often rebelled against having to care for the Bernhardt home following her mother's death a year ago. There are two children besides Alice.

$50,000 LIQUOR ROBBERY REPORTED.
Whisky valued at $50,000 was reported stolen yesterday from the warehouse of the Walsh Transfer company, 400 West Kinzie street.

Big Tool Plant Goes to Hopewell

New location gives old-established New England concern lower freight rates, satisfied labor and cheaper power.

The Mayhew Steel Products, Inc., manufacturers of mechanics' tools and automobile tool kits, is among the latest of America's industries to locate at Hopewell.

The unusual and varied advantages found at Hopewell prompted this concern to purchase a ten-acre tract of land upon which they will erect a structural steel factory building.

Their confidence in the permanency of Hopewell can be judged by their purchase of bare ground for the erection of a plant.

Mayhew Steel Products, Inc., established a plant at Hopewell to take advantage of the low freight rates on raw material and the finished product which goes to the South, Middle West and the largest distribution centres of the East.

Mayhew gets low-cost fuel and power at Hopewell. They also get a plentiful supply of satisfied American labor with excellent housing and recreation facilities for that labor.

They also get at Hopewell deep water shipping facilities for a greater export business.

The Mayhew Company has been making tools in New England since 1856. They are the pioneers in their trade to locate a plant in this great industrial district of Virginia.

Why not be the pioneer in your industry to place a plant here? You, too, can reap similar advantages at Hopewell, America's greatest industrial opportunity. Here are some of the advantages it offers:

Factory buildings ready for occupancy.
Plant sites with railway sidings.
Low-priced power.
Plentiful supply of contented labor.
Homes for 12,000 families.
Abundance of pure water.
Best rail and water transportation.
No harmful municipal restrictions.
Climate mild and healthful.

President of the International Society of Applied Psychology.

The Chicago Society of Applied Psychology has appointed a committee of one hundred to inaugurate and manage a city-wide campaign of applied psychology by ORLANDO EDGAR MILLER, Ph. D., an American Citizen recently returned from London, England, where for ten years he conducted the largest institution of applied psychology in the world. This will be the third and by far the greatest campaign Dr. Miller has begun and finished in Chicago, which is rapidly becoming the center of psychological endeavor. The Chicago Society of Applied Psychology is composed of men and women who have been amazingly benefited by the practice of applied psychology. They have determined that the benefits of this new science shall be placed within the reach of every person who desires to study it. With that end in view it announces the first of a series of

Memoranda for the Week

BY BURTON RASCOE.

These, among the recent books, are especially recommended:

"SCRAMBLED EGGS," by Lawton Mackall.
 "THE LONDON VENTURE," by Michael Arlen.
 "THE LIFE OF GEN. WILLIAM BOOTH," by Harold Regbie.
 "MEMORIES" and "RECORDS," by Lord Fisher.
 "THE THUNDERBOLT," by G. Colmore.
 "ANCESTRAGE," by Michael Sadler.

Others: An Anthology of the New Verse for 1919 (Brown), edited by Alfred Kreymborg, is one of the most pleasant and interesting volumes that have come to hand in several months. I turn its pages with eagerness, interest, and even at times with rapture. That last vague feeling or state Wallace Stevens, Conrad Aiken, Carl Sandburg, Alfred Kreymborg, Waldo Frank, and Louis Stevenson have the power to evoke in me—Stevens with his faint, melodious strangeness, Aiken with his rippling introspective sentiment, Sandburg with his growing tenderness, Kreymborg with his elated mood, Gould with his chaptalms, and Miss Ridge with her pathetic intensity.

There is a new poet represented in this collection whose work I had not previously known. His name is Edgar Lee Masters of the black belt. Of the eight sketches represented here, at least, are examples of stark vividness and of reactions sensed and recorded. There is a variety here (though not the artistic consistency that is not to be found in "Spoon River"). Mr. Johnson's tableaux are haphazardly arranged and they too frequently carry these explaining the intentions but they compel attention by their sheer poignancy.

I should like especially to call to your notice one of Miss Harriet Monroe's many discoveries. (America's artist, best to Miss Monroe probably will never be adequately acknowledged.) Readers of "Poetry: A Magazine of Verse," already know the work of Wallace Stevens; others who have a sense of fine artistry are missing something. I regret I have not space here to discuss his work. I think you will admire his work intensely. His "Le Monocle de Mon Oncle" in this volume is a deft triumph.

A squabble among poets has resulted in the omission of Maxwell Bodenheim from the anthology. It is to be regretted, because Bodenheim's ability to convey definite impressions by curious word combinations singularly outlike one of the most individual and interesting of the younger poets. Vachel Lindsay is represented in this collection by his extraordinary, rollicking "Daniel Janz." Kreymborg has a couple of delightful pieces; Sandburg is represented with four poems, including his excellent "Autumn Movement," and there are poems by Witter Bynner, Emanuel Carverall, H. L. Davis, Jeanne D'Orge, Donald Evans, Robert Frost, Arturo Giovannitti, Marsden Hartley, Orick Johns, Haniel Long, Miss Loy, Max Michelson, Marianne Moore, Robert Alden Sanborn, William Saphier, Evelyn Scott, Marston Allen Siebert, and William Carlos Williams, besides the others named. Here are various and individual modes of poetic expression, the bizarre and the tender.

the fantastic and the bitter, the clever and the superficial—beauty, strangeness, humor, life. A pleasurable, treatable volume.

"Time Telling Through the Ages" (Doubleday-Page), by Harry Brearley—An excellent sketch of the history of horology. Excellent in format and typography. Illustrated with photographs by Lejaren A. Hiller.

"Masks" (Harcourt, Brace & Howe), by George Middleton—Five one act plays. Mr. Middleton's falling is his utter sincerity. Nothing can be more stirring than an artistic conscience in a man who is not an artist.

"Scrambled Eggs," by Lawton Mackall, is one of those valuable rarities, a clever bit of work, by a genial skeptic, a tolerant ironist, and a genuine humorist. The modern human comedy, in terms of the barnyard. The chances to fall in this were numerous; Mr. Mackall slips not once in his comic analogies. There is excellent characterization with the finest literary economy. A book to give your most discerning friends.

A REAL delight is "The London Venture" (Dodd-Mead), by Michael Arlen, a young Armenian whose real name is Dikran Kouyoumdjian. The style is a close and highly successful imitation of the later George Moore, than whom there can be no better model. The rhythm, the intimacy, the lucidity, the freshness of Moore, is there, and the man behind the voice, curiously, scarcely at all like Moore. There is charming sentiment here, a vague wistfulness of a serious-minded young man, recalling love episodes, talking of this and that. And it is a book that is good to look upon, with its delightful drawings, by Michel Sevier, and its excellent printing.

"The Bad Results of Good Habits and Other Lapses" (Houghton, Mifflin), by J. Edgar Parle—Even tempered discourses by a man after your own heart. Listen to him: "You know the moral aristocrat. His motto is All or Nothing. He appears among temperance reformers oftentimes. He is generally so much under the influence of pie and doughnuts that he lumps together alcohol, smoking, and dancing as the devil incarnate." Not all so good as that, but almost.

"One Hundred Best Novels Condensed" (Harper's), edited by Edwin A. Grozier—A life-saver for my competitors.

"The Menace of Immorality in Church and State" (Dorans), by the Rev. John Roach Straton, D. D.—The reverend doctor is getting a column spread every day in the leading sporting and theatrical gazette of Gotham with his jeremiads. They like his show.

"We Moderns" (Knopf), by Edwin Muir—This is the third in the Free Lance series under the editorship of H. L. Mencken. There is no connection whatever between the ideas Mr. Mencken attributes to Mr. Muir in the preface and the ideas Mr. Muir sets forth in the text. I have read the book through three times. It is very short to see if Mr. Muir could possibly be the great modern evolutionary, heretic, and anarchist. Mencken says he is. Instead, I have found this Muir a crabbled, blue nosed Scotchman.

Miss Sophie Kerr is the author of "Painted Meadows" (Dorans).

a stark, humorless Geneva Calvinist, who, if he ever reads that preface, will have the law on Mr. Mencken. In the preface we learn that Mr. Muir is a radical philosopher, who has gone a step farther than Nietzsche, that he sets out to free man from superstitions, fears, conscience, that he formulates a new aesthetic, and that he is a prophet, critic, and iconoclast. Instead, we find a man who writes in an apologetic imitation of Nietzsche's manner—abruptness, ellipses, typographical effects, punctuation, and all—but whose ideas are no more like Nietzsche's than I am like Jack Dempsey. A "philosopher" indeed, who would have a man jailed for ever laughing or reading "Mlle. de Maupin" or going to a musical comedy; a "philosopher" who says that every drama should end in tragedy, that George Moore will not live because he hasn't Love (the capital is his); that Hardy "falls" because he hasn't Love; that the only men now writing in English who will live are W. H. Hudson and Joseph Conrad "because they have Love." Seldom have I encountered such abject nonsense, so many wild and unobtainable dicta. The latter part of the book sounds like the most rhapsodical sections of Science and Health.

Mrs. Eddy is a rather better and more original literary artist. How did Mr. Mencken ever fall for this plishposh?

From the Daily Maroon, University of Chicago.

We see that Burton Rascoe, the self-taught literary critic of the Trib, knows Mr. Boynton's book, "American Literature." When Rascoe knows as much about literature as Mr. Boynton, he can begin to talk with some weight.

Bob Holliday, who has come all the way from New York to apologize to me for having perpetrated those terrible books, "Brown Street Straws" and "Peeps at People," and to thank me for pointing out how bad they are, tells me he has just written a book I will like, a book that is better than "Walking Stick Papers." The stenographer who typed it, he swears on oath, refused to accept payment for the job, saying that she had too much pleasure reading the manuscript.

"Marquerry's Duel"

BY ELIA W. PEATTIE.

THE struggle of a man with his lower nature is no new theme, but Anthony Pryde in his novel, "MARQUERRY'S DUEL," has his own fashion of telling the familiar tale. The story relates to English politics, and the complications and rivalries in parliament are bound up with the curious romance of the plot. For the romance certainly has unusual features. A more spineless, non-resistant heroine than the unhappy Lady Marchmont it would be difficult to meet in many a day's journey through the land of fiction. Yet she succeeds in winning the love of a number of worthy and energetic people, not to speak of the adoration she received from the untamed Marquerry.

Marquerry was not merely a politician and a gentleman, but he was a traveler, a hunter, and a man of secret missions. He knew much which he concealed, and was pretty well acquainted with himself until Destiny took him in hand and broke his body and chastened his spirit. That was when the better angels of his warring temperament gained the ascendancy and secured what the reader believes to be a permanent peace.

The secondary hero, West, is well drawn and every reader must approve of his reasonableness, his faithfulness, and his courtesy, even though he may lack the fascinations of the stormier protagonist. West's feminine opposite is a sensible but not very beguiling young woman, and the marriage of these two worthy persons wins the approval but does not intrigue the interest of the reader. All's well with the world, obviously. But the imagination is not stimulated by what appears to be at best but a tepid matrimonial arrangement.

What is interesting about the book is the depiction of the men and their relations to each other; the abject helplessness united to the wisdom of the meek displayed by the Irish heroine; and, above all, the general atmosphere, which holds one, much as life does, not with beauty or consistency or anything rare and strange, but by the odd accidents of life, the knitting of destinies, and the flow of personality. (Robert M. McBride & Co.)

The Finding of Marcel Proust

PERHAPS the most significant and individual new writer in France is Marcel Proust. His projected series of five novels, two of which have been published, is to be a monumental presentation of Parisian "old family" life, entitled "A la recherche du temps perdu." It is a curious, meticulous work of infinite detail, devoid of plot and "action" and given over to the minute recording of characterizing incidents. As you read a firmly etched impression is made upon your mind of subtle and civilized decadence in a fashionable and debilitated society.

Proust's method, but hardly his manner, is somewhat analogous to that of Dorothy Richardson. His strange syntax, his involved prose, his heavy manner is obviously premeditated. He is shown in his parodies in "Pastiches et Mélanges" that he can imitate the vigorous directness of Sainte-Beuve and the cadenced simplicity of Renan. The superficial effect of his writing is something like what might have resulted had Dorothy Richardson collaborated with Henry James. He will undoubtedly be given a hearing in English literary circles.

Proust, it appears, is a middle aged valetudinarian with an income sufficient to his tastes, who was, it seems, a rake, a dilettante, and a society man in his younger days. In 1913 there came into the office of the Nouvelle Revue Française a huge, bulky, almost illegible manuscript bearing the title, "Du côté de chez Swann," and dedicated to Gaston Calmette, late editor of Figaro and a man of political and journalistic rather than literary consequence. The editors, Jacques Rivière and André Gide, regarded the manuscript and returned it without a reading. A few months later the novel appeared under the imprint of a publisher who prints books at authors' expense. Rivière and Gide read it, recognized it as the novel they had turned down, and also recognized it as almost an epoch making literary production. They thought first of diving hand-in-hand off Eiffel tower. Gallimard looked up Proust's address and went to see him. The number showed that of an ancient and musty Parisian hotel in one of the aristocratic neighborhoods. Gallimard passed through a number of dark and deserted rooms and came at last to the door of a vast, dusty, vaulted-ceilinged bedroom. As his eyes focused, he perceived by the light of a single guttering candle, a little, weakened old man in bed, wearing a nightcap, and beside him on a table de nuit a towering mass of scribbled sheets. And so this bachelor recluse, writing now to please himself in the flesh, became the "And" of the Nouvelle Revue Française. Waldo Frank tells me that when the first two volumes were set up Proust objected to the typography and the margins, and to please him the entire double volume was reset by the publishers at their own expense.

"The Cross Pull" (Knopf) by Maxwell Ewatts—An uncommonly good western yarn, the chief interest of which lies in the author's extensive knowledge of the habits and instincts of dogs, horses and other animals and the interesting fashion in which he divulges it.

Alec Waugh's "The Loom of Youth" has just been published by Dorans. It was written when Mr. Waugh was only 17, but it stirred England as it has seldom been stirred by a book, with its revelation of the moral conditions in English public schools. B. R.

WITH his old-fashioned safety bicycle, a "long-horn steer on wheels," they called it—he looked like a tenderfoot for sure. So when Jim Wilder made this itinerant peddler a present of the meanest outlaw pony in the Bad Lands, they looked for fun—and they got it.

He got a job "fence-riding" for a girl boss—protecting her herds from "rustlers." How he was nearly lured to a fiery death, and how he kept his trust, are told in a rattling rapid-fire narrative that keeps the reader keyed up to the last page.

When Buying Books Think of McClurg's

SPECIALIZATION is the spirit of the age because it alone assures successful service.

It is, therefore, quite obvious that the art of selling books should be highly specialized.

It is also quite obvious that the buyer of books should buy them from a bookstore sufficiently well organized and equipped to satisfy every imaginable whim or desire. At McClurg's every book in print, and many out of print, if obtainable, may be quickly secured.

This great book store is the result of years and years of effort on the part of a great organization to make the buying of books extremely easy and satisfactory.

No matter what books you are interested in, come to McClurg's. There is a complete department in which you can find exactly what you want.

WORLD MARK IN PENN HURDLES; BRITON BEATEN

Philadelphia, Pa., April 30.—A new world record, the defeat of England's best collegiate distance runner, the beating of three teams, including Oxford & Cambridge, at the post in the star race, and the winning of the pentathlon by Bradley of University of Pennsylvania, were outstanding features of the opening day of the University of Pennsylvania relay carnival.

The presence of the English university team gave an international aspect to the games and, but for a heavy rain and the unfortunate fiasco which ruined the distance medley championship race, the initial day of the meet would have gone down in athletic history as one of the most successful in the long carnival record.

English Crack Beaten.

The fastest field of varsity distance runners that the country could boast faced the starter in the three mile international. Intercollegiate race arranged for the special benefit of E. A. Montague of Oxford university, winner of this event in the Oxford-Cambridge dual meet in London on March 27, when he did 14:43.2. Today he was easily defeated by G. T. Nightingale of New Hampshire State college by more than forty yards in 14:58. Montague, who ran second in 15:02.2, finished some thirty yards ahead of W. K. MacMahon, Massachusetts Tech.

Eleven runners jumped away at the pistol shot and Graf of Nebraska immediately went into the lead. At the mile he was leading by a neck and a yard in 4:55, with Montague going easily in fourth position.

Nightingale Shows Heels.

MacMahon moved into the lead at the 1 1/4 miles, with Montague second, a stride ahead of Graf and the others. Nightingale went to the fore at two miles, which he turned in 10 minutes flat, with Montague and MacMahon a yard in the rear.

At 2 1/4 miles Nightingale was leading Montague by a half yard and running well within himself, while the English runner was ten yards ahead of the Massachusetts star. Then Nightingale put on a burst of speed and continued to draw away and won slowing up, but MacMahon did not have the stamina to overtake the Oxford star and was obliged to be satisfied with third place.

In the 440 yard hurdle J. M. Watt of Cornell won almost as he wished in new world's record time of 3:15, displacing the former time of 3:25, made by Harry Hillman of New York A. C. in 1914. Coughlin of the University of the South was second and H. Glab, Nebraska, third, finishing well in the rear of Watt.

Maroons Hurt by Flasco.

The keenest disappointment came to the 5,000 spectators when the Oxford-Cambridge team, as well as the University of Chicago team and several others, did not appear for the distance medley relay championship. No explanation was given by the officials, and after a grueling neck and neck race Pennsylvania State noted out the Yale quartet, with Syracuse and Georgetown finishing in that order, well in the rear.

As soon as the runners finished the spectators began to sprint for shelter, but were stopped by the announcement that Oxford-Cambridge, Chicago, and Pennsylvania had not been summoned to the starting line, although ready, and would run a special race over the same distance. As the water soaked spectators returned to their seats there came a second statement that the race would not be held, owing to the condition of the track. The three teams left out of the race were at a loss to explain how the incident occurred.

The triumph of E. Bradley in the pentathlon came as a surprise, his victory over Bartels being one of the sensational upsets of the day. Bradley placed third in the University of Illinois recent indoor all-around contest. Bradley scored 15 points. Bartels of Penn, who won the pentathlon in 1918, finished second with 15; Hamilton, Missouri, third with 19; Yount, Redlands, fourth, 21; Hammond, Kansas, fifth, 23, and Cann, New York university, sixth, with 24. Bradley performed consistently, despite the fact he did not win one of the five events.

New York, April 30.—The American Olympic trapshooting team will sail from Boston June 23 for Liverpool. The early sailing will give the team ample time to practice for the British championships July 15 to 17, in which the Americans will compete before proceeding to Antwerp.

SANDOW VICTOR IN BURMAN GO

Baltimore, Md., April 30.—(Special.)—A whirlwind finish by Sammy Sandow, Cincinnati bantam, earned him the decision over Joe Burman of Chicago at the close of twelve fast rounds before a large crowd tonight. The decision did not meet with general approval and many spectators openly declared that the worst Burman should have gotten was a draw. Burman was piling up a lead until the final session when Sandow tore after him and had him groggy at the going. Both were bleeding at the finish, Sandow having a cut over his right eye and Burman a rash over his left eye.

SHOTS ON LINKS BY JOE DAVIS

Continued wet weather caused the cancellation of the scheduled exhibition foursome this afternoon between Laurie Aytton, the new Evanston Golf club professional, and Chick Evans, against Jack Hutchinson and Bob McDonald. The event will be held later. Aytton has been unable to get in much practice since arriving in Chicago from Britain.

Immediately following the burning of the home of the Hinsdale Golf club last Thursday a force of men was put to work on temporary quarters, with the result that officials announced yesterday a temporary frame locker room, 100x24, would be ready next Thursday. It will have 100 steel lockers, showers and other facilities. The club has bought the Raymond summer home and property about 100 feet from the clubhouse site, and this will be used as auxiliary quarters. Plans for the new permanent clubhouse, to cost between $75,000 and $100,000, will be begun at once, and it is the expectation to have the building under roof by the fall.

FEVERING DOWNS ALVAREZ

John Febery disposed of Paul Alvarez, termed the Spanish champion, in a mat contest at the Harbortek last night. Febery won the first fall in 31:19 with a body score, and Alvarez conceded the second in 13:30.

CONFAB ON GOLF REVISION BRINGS CLASH OF VIEWS

New York, April 30.—(Special.)—Railroad presidents, heads of great corporations, bankers, brokers, and plain ordinary folk devoted more than three hours today to an interchange of opinions on the proposed new rules in golf at the special conference between the committee of the U. S. G. A., which will sail for England on May 22, and delegates from every important golf association in the country.

Every known angle and a few brand new ones, on the standard ball, stymie, and the lost and out of bounds ball, were probed.

Much Divergence in Views.

No action was taken because it was the purpose of the session to fortify the U. S. G. A. committee with the view of American golf. The nearest thing of unanimity was the general opinion that the penalty for a lost ball should be the same as for an out of bounds ball.

Leighton Shortens of this City

Leighton Shortens of this city declared that shortening the rules at this time would be a mistake. He offered a standardized ball.

West Opposes Standard Ball.

Those who opposed standardization included James E. Nugent, of the Trans-Mississippi body and Wilbur H. Brooks, president of the Western. The discussion of the elimination of the stymie called forth an even greater variance. Whereas President Stephenson of the Massachusetts body would abolish the stymie altogether, a view shared by President Brooks of the Western Golf association and Mr. Leeley, such others as Mr. Walker of the College association and Julian W. Curtis of the Connecticut association favored the optional plan of conceding the putt where the distance to the hole was so short that the nearer player could scarcely miss.

Suggests Trans-Mississippi Rule.

President Nugent of the Trans-Mississippi cited their rule: If a player lays himself a stymie it must be played, otherwise the ball nearer the hole must be lifted.

Several interesting proposals for changes in other rules were made. Mr. Brooks suggested four, as follows:

1. Make the honor at the tee optional with the winner of the last hole.
2. Prohibit concession of putts.
3. Define a practice stroke.
4. Have only the opponent lift a ball in medal or match play to obtain identification.

Question of Lifting a Ball which is imbedded in a muddy course was discussed by several others.

YOO HOO, FELLERS, TROUT!

THIS is the day that many have been looking forward to since the January thaw that came in March; be it known that the trout season opens this day in Michigan and Wisconsin. A goodly contingent of anglers from Chicago and vicinity left here last night headed for their favorite streams, all hot and each as tickled as a kid with a new red wagon.

Reports from the north are more encouraging than we expected; it seems that a lot of the atrocious weather that we have been having here was escaped by the north. Some rivers are high but many of them are reported to be in conditions ranging from fair to very good, depending on the territory. "Fair to middling" describes the trout streams of lower Michigan.

Anglers going to Wisconsin and Michigan after trout, from other states, should not forget to ask for trout licenses. Both states this year have $3 licenses for trout fishermen, while Wisconsin has a $2 and Michigan a $1 license for those who catch fishes other than trout. The possessor of a $1 license in either state, however, need not buy another one for taking bass, muskies, and other species, as the general license covers all fishing.

Both Wisconsin and Michigan have a size limit of 7 inches on trout and a daily limit of thirty-five fish. Michigan permits the non-resident to take or ship one day's catch of trout from the state, but a coupon from the license must be attached to package. Wisconsin does not permit the shipping of trout, but thirty-five fish may be taken from the state if accompanied by owner—see tomorrow's Woods and Waters for data on Wisconsin fishing laws.

Those who fish in Michigan should note that their general license this season does not permit the taking of grayling; these fish are now protected throughout the year, as some streams are becoming stocked with "the flower of fishes." Whether they are the old Michigan grayling or some transplanted from Montana is something on which we have been unable to get any definite data.

PLATER AT 106-1 BEATS SIR BARTON

Harve De Grae, Md., April 30.—(Special.)—The spring meeting at Harve De Grae closed today with a surprise that will make this session linger in the minds of the thousands of Philadelphia handicappers at a mile and a sixteenth. Crystal Ford, a plater quoted at 106 to 1, got up in the last few strides to lead home such stars as Sir Barton, Star Master, and Billy Kelly in a field of ten starters. The mutuels paid $214.40 to holders of $2 tickets.

MASON KNOCKED OUT IN FIRST BY CARL TREMAINE

Tribune Decisions

Decisions of The Tribune fight representatives are:

At Toledo—Carl Tremaine knocked out Frankie Mason (11).

At Saginaw—Johnny Mandelstam beat Bobby Ward (10).

At Dayton—Blockie Richards beat Harry Conlon (15).

At Philadelphia—Young O'Neill beat Charley O'Neill (6). Pat O'Malley knocked out John Dempsey (18).

At Baltimore—Spartan Sandow beat Joe Burman (13).

At Battle Creek—Jimmy Travers knocked out Chuck Byers (8). Stanley McRide beat Frankie Eagle (10). Navy Keston beat Herb Brodie (10). Sailor Freedman beat Johnny Lewis (10).

At New Orleans—Happy Littleton beat Bob Moha (15).

Toledo, O., April 30.—Carl Tremaine,

the Detroit bantamweight, sprung a ring upset tonight when he knocked out Frankie Mason of Fort Wayne in the first round of a scheduled twelve round contest. Mason was knocked down three times before taking the final count.

The knockout came after one minute and fifteen seconds of battling. Tremaine swinging a hard right to Mason's jaw. Tremaine's ability to punch surprised everybody, and he showed tonight by disposing of Mason that he is to be reckoned with in the bantamweight ranks.

Tremaine and Mason once before fought before a Toledo crowd. They were principals in one of the preliminaries to the world's heavyweight championship bout between Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard last July 4. They fought eight rounds and Tremaine was awarded the decision, but the verdict did not meet with the approval of many of the fans.

Beckett Signs to Fight

Concerning New Spring Apparel That Misses May Choose at Real Savings

The really substantial sort of savings are possible here. For low prices are not the sole determining factor. In each instance suits, coats and frocks are charming in style, fine in fabric and excellent in workmanship.

Fresh-Looking Suits of Tweeds in Grays, "Covert Color," Tans, $55

Buttons closely placed in rows define the easy, debonair lines of these very girlish suits. The lining is of plain color silk or gayly patterned foulard. Sketched at the center.

At $65 and $75, these English-looking tweed suits are a bit different in style detail as to pockets and collars. These are excellent values.

A Cape of Duvet de Laine, $60 Adapted to Many Occasions

Such a cape is a real economy. Simple enough for street wear, graceful and charming for afternoon wear. Note the flat tucked border. Sketched at the right.

Still more short coats are constantly demanded for general utility wear. Here young girls may choose them, all of the polo type, at $35 to $75.

Navy Blue Tailored Tricotine Frocks, Decidedly Unusual, at $75

One is a sketch at the left. Its loose Mandarin-line coat has a deep border of embroidery, black with a rose-colored thread. Real lace is at cuff and vestee.

There is a frock a bit on the Eton lines. Another straight and tailored. The tricotines are of quality seldom found even in frocks higher priced.

Fourth Floor, South.

"Streamer" Hats For Schoolgirls

Charming they are with their flying streamers or two-tone sashes adding bright color notes. The very hats girls want to wear with new frocks and coats. In

Two Groups at $7.50 and $8.75

Of patent and Italian Milan straws. Quaint poke and drooping shapes, rolled brim and sailor modes. In black, brown and navy blue.

At $7.50 also, a group of smart hats of lisse straws, plain or in two-tone effects. Brims are either single or double.

Fifth Floor, South.

Fresh New Gingham Frocks in Plenty For Every Schoolgirl of Six to Sixteen—At $3.50

These are the days when a crisp new frock—fresh and fine every day—adds immeasurably to the zest of school life. Every little girl knows that.

And it is possible to indulge little schoolgirls in this matter, when one can have such smart little frocks so moderately priced.

There Are Plaid Gingham Frocks— Checked Gingham Frocks Plain Color Gingham Frocks

Simple all of them are. Big collars, cleverly placed bandings, pockets, of course. Styles are varied for the different ages of little girlhood. There is not, however, every size in every style; but all sizes in the groups. Two of these frocks are pictured at the right.

Frocks for Better and Best—and Coats to Wear With Them

Lovely tub frocks of fine cotton fabrics and the most charming of silk frocks are constantly coming. Now is such an interesting time in the little girls' section.

Girls may have capes if they like, quite like grown-ups. And, of course, coats in the top-coat lines. Short, often with leather belts, and always with pockets.

Sale of "Fan-ta-si" Blouses Specially Priced at $8.50

All these blouses are new. Their first presentation takes place at this time. So that here is a sale in the best sense of the word. It brings these charming blouses, of a fabric much in favor, at a pricing which, in itself remarkably low, is in no measure indicative of the values afforded. These blouses of "Fan-ta-si" are in sizes for women and misses.

There Are Four Styles, All in "Fan-ta-si," in Its Varied Lovely Weaves and Colorings

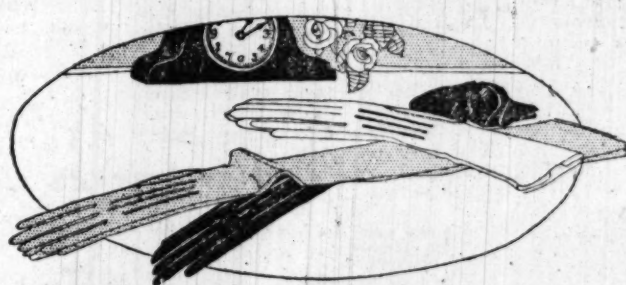

In styles—three of these blouses are of the slip-over type. The fourth buttons at the back. Collar lines are rounded or "V" shaped. All have the short sleeves. One style has wee vest pockets.

In colors—navy blue, Danish blue, Pekin blue, flesh color, Jasper, sunset-rose, bronze, tea-rose, maize, ivory, heliotrope, tan, orchid, and old rose. Some there are of the two-tone tints.

Too much stress cannot be placed, we believe, on the unusual values in these "Fan-ta-si" blouses at this price, $8.50.

Now Begins the May First Sale of Women's Milanese Silk Gloves 16,000 Pairs—The Entire Quantity

This sale, we believe, will be counted among the most advantageous that has occurred in months. To obtain in quantity silk gloves of these qualities is in itself an achievement of no small measure. But to obtain these gloves to sell at these prices is decidedly out-of-the-usual. The values cannot be too greatly emphasized. Included are:

6,000 Pairs 16-Button Length Gloves, $2.35 Pair
2,400 Pairs 12-Button Length Gloves, $1.85 Pair
7,600 Pairs Short 2-Clasp Gloves, $1.35 Pair
(In White, Mode, Pongee-Color, Gray)

The richness and firmness of the Milanese silk weave is well known. It adds much stress to the values presented in this sale. As to the details, the matter of clasps and embroidery, these are new, and the sort most in favor this season. Special attention is called to the fact that—

This May First Selling of Women's Silk Gloves will continue only while the present assortments last. Although the quantity is large, the values are of such an unusual nature that active selling cannot but result. Therefore early selections are advised.

CHICAGO RESERVE BANKS NEW BRAKE

The stock exchanges throughout the country and the eastern commodity markets will be closed today. The Chicago Board of Trade and the banks generally will remain open as usual.

The continuous inflation of credit in the middle west has led the Chicago Federal Reserve bank to adopt further measures to discourage borrowing by the banks. The reserve bank yesterday advanced its discount rate on paper secured by Liberty bonds and Victory notes from 4 1/2 to 5 percent. The new discount rate now below 4 percent is on papers secured by treasury certificates of indebtedness.

The need for the Chicago reserve bank to put the brakes on borrowing is shown in the fact that last week its loans totaled nearly $417,000,000 and in addition it owed $410,000,000 to other federal banks which had taken that amount of its funds. At the same time the Chicago reserve bank has been ordered by the legal limit. Now the bank desires to curtail loans on government securities in order to be in a better position to aid legitimate commercial transactions.

Seas Unnecessary Loans.
The federal reserve board also is recommending its campaign against credit inflation through unnecessary loans. It is investigating bank acceptances and asking banks to desist from this form of accommodation. A comprehensive questionnaire on the general discount market.

The governors believe that the privilege of issuing bank acceptances is being abused and that conditions call for more careful scrutiny if the present policy of deflation is to be successfully carried out. It was said many transactions in bank acceptances really represent nothing more than commercial paper, and the board intends, so far as it can, to reduce all bank acceptances to actual discounts. Two principal questions asked are whether acceptances should not be treated as redemptive of the federal reserve banks and whether the use of bank acceptances is not being abused.

American Woolen Plans.
Directors of the American Woolen company yesterday announced a plan to increase the common stock from $200,000 to $400,000,000 and the preferred stock from $200,000 to $400,000,000. The stockholders will vote on the proposal on May 3. Under the plan both preferred and common stockholders of record on May 1 may subscribe for new common stock at par, $100. In the ratio of one new share for each three shares held. The sale of this new common stock would increase the company's capital from $200,000 to $400,000,000 and a stock dividend of 150 per cent is contemplated. Stockholders of the Brier Hill Steel company will vote on June 1 to increase the common stock from $100,000 to $200,000,000 and a stock dividend of 200 per cent is contemplated. Another "melon" is planned.

Dividend by Studebaker.
The directors of the Studebaker corporation yesterday declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent on the preferred and common stock. They thus disposed of the question as to whether the 7 per cent rate would be maintained on the junior issue since the declaration of the 23 per cent stock dividend. The new stock will be issued on May 5, when the old stock will sell "ex" the stock dividend, and will participate in the current distribution. Net earnings for the first quarter of 1920 were the highest in any similar period of the company's history.

Chicago bank clearings for April totaled $2,939,613,252, a decline of $478,185 from the record total of $3,417,798,434 for March, but an increase of $429,252,719 over April, 1919. Balances for April totaled $214,533,534, a decline of $52,199 from the record March figure, but an increase of $9,593,901 over April, 1919.

"Where costuming is held an art"

Women's and misses' tailored suits in late, smart fashions—a sale

Most of the suits were secured in an exceptional transaction, considerably below the market. The remainder—of equal worth—were taken from our regular stock and repriced to correspond. Two important groups:

Women's and misses' distinctive suits, $95

Adaptations of the season's most striking models, in tricotine or poret twill; lengthened coat styles with mannish straight lines, varying from the strictly tailored to the elaborately embroidered; also the jaunty eton jacket style, with fancy girdle and sash, and plain or plaited skirt. See the sketch.

Women's and misses' smart tailleurs, $75

—of fine tricotine or poret twill; straight line, one or two button link effect; also eton and pony jacket styles; plain, embroidered or braided. See cut. Fourth floor.

Modes decidedly new—values emphatically special—in a sale of misses' separate skirts of viyella flannel or men's wear serge

Such skirts are accorded more than usual favor this season, since they lend themselves charmingly to many delightful costume combinations and variations. The price is moderate:

19.75

The skirts may be worn effectively with the short jackets now vogue. The "youthful" knife plaited models illustrated on the left are singularly well adapted for such modishly complementary service. Fourth floor.

Men's shop, second floor

Men's two-trouser suits—a sale

that business men will appreciate

—glad of the opportunity to secure, at reasonable outlay, suits that promise so much in service. There is easily a half more wear in these two-trouser suits, for but a trifle in added cost. Second floor.

Excellent values

at $58

Suits of dark, serviceable worsteds and dark navy blue serges—fabrics selected with service in view. The convenience of the additional pair of trousers, pressed, ready to wear, will appeal particularly to men of affairs, who recognize the value of a correct appearance. $58 is but little more than the cost of an equally worthy suit with only one pair of trousers.

Sale of men's tweed hats

—English model—American make

Tweed hats promise to be decidedly popular in this day of high priced headgear—and these are extra special at 2.95

Smartly fashioned from tweed, homespuns and heather mixtures, these soft, light weight hats with an English air will bridge the season till straw hat time. Second floor.
